Square Dancing Popular Activity At 'Y'

Square dancing is a "fun" activity at Consolidated Central YMCA.

Pictures on the opposite page show members of the Y-Promenade Club as they go through some of their fancy steps and figures. The club, first organized in 1953, includes many Fieldcresters among its members.

Roy Martin, formerly a Fieldcrest supervisor, is president; and J. E. (Jim) Jones, manager of canteen services at Fieldcrest, is secretary and treasurer. Mr. Martin and Swanson "Butch" Via are the club's official callers, having studied and practiced sufficiently to become experts.

Mr. Martin said the purpose of the club is to provide fun, relaxation and good fellowship and that its activities furnish wholesome recreation for men and women of all ages as well as for children and teen-agers. Many members bring their children to the dances and special recreation is arranged for the youngsters.

Mr. Martin pointed out that there has been a revival of square dancing and that there are clubs all over the country, including a number of clubs in Winston-Salem, Greensboro, High Point, Burlington and other nearby cities.

The Y-Promenade Club usually has dances on Saturday nights in the "Y" gymnasium. Sometimes the clubs from Martinsville and Collinsville, Va., visit here and the local club in turn meets with them. All of the clubs feature Appalachian and Western style square dancing, comprised of a large number of figures and singing calls.

Spectators are welcome at the dances and new members are invited. Those wishing to join should do so now since instruction will be given learners at all of the dances in January. The club prefers to teach six or eight couples at a time. The new members will be taught the basics and after the four January sessions will be able to dance with the club.

"Get your partner and come on out!" says Caller Martin.
