

Karastan Mill Is Featured On Television

Kathy Thornton, commentator on Channel 7 "Panorama" program, admires Pattern 718, an oriental-design rug shown by John G. Cunningham, general superintendent.

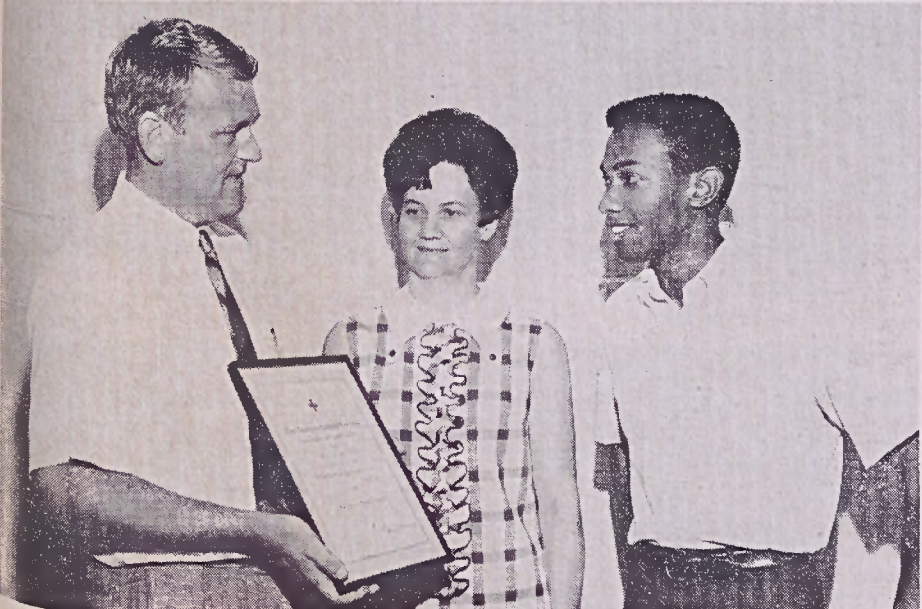

Doug Higgins, Channel 7 photographer films Karastan scenes for TV showing.

The Karastan Rug Mill at Eden was featured on the "Panorama" program over Channel 7, WBDJ-TV, Roanoke, Va., July 2 and 3.

Color films of the processes used in manufacturing Karastan rugs were shown and Lowry Maclean, of the Product Development staff, was interviewed by Kathy Thornton, commentator for "Panorama". Mrs. Thornton, Ed Ewing, director of the "Panorama" program; and Doug Higgins, photographer for Channel 7, had earlier spent a day at Karastan and photographed the main operations as they were given a guided tour of the mill. Fieldcrest's Karastan Rug Mill has achieved world-renown for its original product line of oriental-design rugs and for pioneering in styling and color leadership in the rug and carpet industry.

Sheet Finishing Exceeds Bloodmobile Quota

W. A. Galloway, left above, superintendent of the Sheet Finishing Mill, shows a certificate citing the mill's latest achievement to Estelle Mize, Cut and Sew Department, and Freddy Williams, Packaging Department.

The certificate was presented to the mill for its outstanding contribution to the Eden Red Cross Bloodmobile program. The Sheet Finishing employees made 124 percent of their quota for 1968, the only mill to make its quota.

The certificate, which has been framed and is hanging in the office area, was presented to the mill and accepted for the employees by Mr. Galloway at the annual meeting of the Eden Chapter of the Red Cross.

MASTERN FULLER

Mastern Fuller Cited As 'Most Outstanding'

Mastern Fuller, of Fieldale, manager-mill accounting, towels and bedspreads, placed first in the outstanding member competition of the Piedmont Chapter, National Association of Accountants during the past program year.

This competition is scored on points awarded for organizational activities, perfect attendance and new members. Mr. Fuller, who has been a member of the chapter for only a year and a half, received a total of 875 points, 100 ahead of the second-place member. He had a perfect attendance record for the 1968-69 meetings.
