"Virginia Partners" Entertain

Following entertainment by the "Virginia Partners", a string band led by Troy Brammer, a former employee of the mill, a number of attendance prizes were awarded.

Towel sets were won by the following: Bob Lee Eanes, Homer McAlexander and Robert Jamerson.

J. Frank Wilson, retired production manager of the mills, was recognized as the oldest member present, 85, and was presented a towel set.

In a contest to guess closest to the amount of money in a half-gallon jar, E. H. Copeland was the winner. He guessed $237.50 and the jar contained $234.38.

Elder J. Bruce Clifton, of the Weave Room, gave the invocation that preceded the picnic supper.

Asha Kirpalani and Vickie Clemmer

Native Of India Tours Mount Holly Spinning

Asha Kirpalani was a recent visitor to the Mount Holly Spinning Mill in Mount Holly. Miss Kirpalani is a native of India and now lives in Hong Kong. Vickie Clemmer, an accounting clerk at Mount Holly, took Miss Kirpalani on a tour of the mill.

Mrs. Kathryn Clemmer of Charlotte, Vickie Clemmer's sister-in-law, and Miss Kirpalani have been pen pals for eight years, and Miss Kirpalani was in Charlotte to meet her and included the visit to Mount Holly on her trip.

Miss Kirpalani has just spent a year at the University of Grenoble in France and had come to the United States to visit her brother, Narendra, who is a student at the University of Ohio.
