Products Shown At State Fair This Week

Fieldcresters who attend the State Fair in Raleigh this week are invited to see the Fashion Show and view the exhibits of Fieldcrest and Karastan products in the Industrial and Fine Arts Building.

The fair opened Friday, October 17, and will continue through Saturday, October 25. Hundreds of thousands of fair-goers are expended to see the fashion show and the Fieldcrest Mills, Inc., display.

June Mohler, of New York, Fieldcrest's manager of merchandise publicity and sales training, has charge of the fashion show. Models will be women from Raleigh. A number of persons from New York and Eden will assist with the presentations.

The exhibits will feature Fieldcrest and Karastan products in attractive displays showing the various patterns and colors of the products.

It will be the second year that Fieldcrest Mills has presented the fashion show and exhibits at the State Fair. Last year's presentations were viewed by many thousands of people and attracted much favorable attention.

The purpose of the fashion show and display is to give North Carolinians a greater knowledge of the products of Fieldcrest Mills, one of the state's leading industries, with the Company's headquarters and most of its mills located in this state.

Completes 40 Years

William Leslie Hall, a Blanket Mill supervisor, completed 40 years of continuous service with the Company on October 8. He has been presented with the Fieldcrest 40-year service emblem and a letter of commendation from President G. William Moore.

Mr. Hall is a native of Vesta, Va., and was employed in the Sheeting Mill Weave Room as early as 1924. However, his continuous service dates from October 8, 1929 when he was employed as a slubber hand in the Blanket Mill Cotton Carding Department.

He became a frame fixer in 1947 and remained in that classification until he was promoted to assistant foreman in the Cotton Carding Department in 1955. He continues to serve in that capacity.
