

Booth Celebrates Birthday With Children And Grandchildren

Willis M. Booth, center, in the photo at left above, is shown with his children at the celebration of his 62nd birthday. Mr. Booth is employed in the Wool Card Room at the Blanket Mill.

Supervisory Changes Made At Winchester

NORMAN C. HOPKINS

Two supervisory changes have been announced at the Winchester Spinning Corporation, a Fieldcrest subsidiary, in Asheville.

Norman C. Hopkins was appointed foreman of the Twisting and Reeling Departments and Charles R. Garner was named assistant foreman, second shift, of the Twisting and Reeling Departments.

Mr. Hopkins was transferred to the Asheville plant from the Karastan Spinning Mill in Greenville where he was assistant foreman of the Twisting Department. Prior to his Greenville assignment, Mr. Hopkins was a supervisor at the Blanket Mill in Eden.

He is a graduate of East Carolina University with a B. S. degree in busi-
