

Spring 1970 Lines Are Introduced

(Story On Page One)

Pictures at right on these two pages show some of the new One-Look ensembles and additions to the Fieldcrest lines introduced for the Spring 1970 season.

Top pictures:

Left, "Soroya" is a new One-Look in Fieldcrest's Spring 1970 line. Inspired by the Far East, the ensemble is in a swirling Paisley design. The overall lace-like pattern is color coordinated on sheets, pillow cases, bedspreads, towels, shower curtains and bath rugs.

Middle, "Printwork" is new One-Look in an overall arrangement of colorful patches, updating the traditional patchwork motif. The bedspread comes in three striking color combinations, blue/green, red/blue and Spanish straw/black.

Right, "Frost Flowers", a fresh, gay design of stylized flowers etched in white by a unique printing technique developed by Fieldcrest. The One-Look collection includes coordinated sheets, pillow cases, towels, bedspreads, blankets, shower curtains, matching drapes, and bath rugs.

Lower pictures:

Left, "Dimensions" blanket in pattern of sculptured lineal design is new addition to the Fieldcrest-Yves Saint Laurent signature collection. In twin and full sizes, the blanket comes in three color combinations that coordinate with the popular YSL "Dimensions" towels.

Middle, Spring 1970 introductions include a dramatic bath sheet/beach towel as a new addition to Fieldcrest's Yves Saint Laurent collection. The YSL initials dominate the printed towel which comes in four distinctive colors, canary, Spanish straw, verdian, and cardinal.

Right, Fieldcrest is introducing a new collection of 11 contemporary scatter rugs in bold new shapes and striking designs. Made at the recently-purchased Scottsboro Rug Mill, the elegant rugs, in a large variety of colors and sizes, all feature a double-coated non-slip safety back and are machine washable.
