

Meet the Foremen

Paul E. Jones is a foreman at the Blanket Mill with responsibility for the Wool Carding and Wool Picking Departments. He has been with Fieldcrest since 1942 and has been a supervisor for approximately 15 years, mainly in the Wool Carding Department.

He is a native of Martinsville, Va., but has lived in the Draper section of Eden for most of his life. He worked on floor jobs in the Cotton Spinning Department and in the Spooling Department at the Blanket Mill before serving with the Navy in the Pacific during World War II.

Mr. Jones became a card feeder in the Wool Carding Department in 1947 and during the next 10 years worked on virtually every job in the department. He was in the first pre-supervisory training class organized by the Fieldcrest Training Department and attended classes for over a year on his own time.

As a grinder in the Wool Carding Department he frequently worked as a temporary assistant foreman during 1957-58. He was a full-time assistant foreman in the Wool Carding Department

Towel Mill Lists Top Weavers And Fixers

The Fieldale Towel Mill's leading weavers and loom fixers are listed below for the most recent periods of record.

The "Weavers of the Week" are those with the lowest percent of seconds with respect to the standards for the various loom groups.

The "Top Fixers" are determined through a combination of low seconds and high loom efficiency on their respective sections.
