

Blanket Mill Employees Have Outstanding Attendance Records

Johnny Barber, of the Cotton Spinning Department at the Blanket Mill, has worked every scheduled day for the past eight years, and was recently given special recognition at the mill.

John R. Williams, of the Dye House, has a five-year record of perfect attendance. Bruce Powell, of the Weave Room, and Luther Meadows, of the Plant Service Department, have worked every scheduled day for four years. Several employees have three, two and one-year records of perfect attendance.

In a letter to the employees with perfect attendance records, W. F. Crumley, superintendent of the Blanket Mill, said:

"Dependable employees have helped earn Fieldcrest's reputation for reliability. The company's products and service are only as reliable, and its position in competition is only as strong, as the people who can be counted on to be on the job without fail. These are outstanding attendance records and we are proud of the employees who achieved them."

Listed below are names of the Blanket Mill employees who had perfect attendance in 1969, or for the indicated number of years.

Mrs. T. S. Harrington shows decorator pillows made from Fieldcrest washcloths.

Washcloths Make Decorator Pillows

Decorator pillows made from Fieldcrest washcloths will find their way into the homes of 14 prominent North Carolinians in April.

The wives of former members of the State Highway Commission (those who served under Gov. Dan K. Moore) will receive the pillows at a reunion meeting in Greensboro as a gift from Mrs. T. S. Harrington of Eden, whose husband was a member of the Highway Commission.

Mrs. Harrington selected a variety of colors and styles of washcloths at the Fieldcrest Store and, with the help of friends in work-fun sessions at her home, turned out the 14 sets of pillows. Each pair includes a pattern washcloth coordinated with one in a solid color.

The idea for making the pillows was not original with Mrs. Harrington: she said she had seen such pillows that other people had made.

But the idea of giving them to the wives of the former commissioners was hers and "I'll be proud to present them," she said.
