

WEAR SAFETY SHOES

2,500 Pairs Bought In 1969

Wallace Warf, of Blanket Mill Plant Service, has safety shoes fitted by Floyd Strader, Blanket Mill cashier who also handles sales of safety shoes. Fieldcrest employees purchased over 2,500 pairs of safety shoes during 1969. In addition to periodic safety shoe clinics conducted at the various mills, safety shoes may be ordered through several mill supply rooms.

Fieldcresters Quartet Has New Radio Time

The Fieldcresters, a gospel-singing quartet composed of two sets of brothers with Fieldcrest connections, has changed its broadcasts over WLOE at Eden from 4:45 p.m. on Sundays to 6:15 p.m. on Saturdays.

Members of the quartet are Harold Squires, Draper Industrial Engineering Department, second tenor; Dan Squires, Sheeting Mill Spinning Department, bass; Frank Setliff, first tenor; and Bill Setliff, baritone. The Setliff brothers are sons of J. E. Setliff, a retired Blanket Mill supervisor.

The Fieldcresters recently made their first professional recording. The album, called "Sing Me A Song" contains 12 of their most popular selections. The album is being sold ($3.00) at public appearances of the quartet.

The quartet will participate in a gospel-singing program at the Draper First United Methodist Church at 7 p.m. Sunday, March 22. Other groups to appear are the Chapel Four, of Eden and Martinsville, Va.; and the Stella Girls' Quartette, of Spencer, Va.

Seven In Wool Picking Set Attendance Records

John Wray of the Wool Picking Department at the Blanket Mill, has completed a four-year record of perfect attendance on the job. Two other Wool Picking employees, John Hampton and David Harris, have completed two-year records.

Members of the department who worked every scheduled day in 1969 were Wadell Adams, Abraham Clark, Arbon Lane and Clem Wilson.

William F. Crumley, superintendent of the Blanket Mill, said, "These men have established outstanding records of on-the-job attendance. We want to congratulate them and thank them for their fine cooperation and dependability."
