Vol. 28, Monday, April 13, 1970, No. 20

In employees store section of new Personnel Building, William O. Stone, Jr., manager of the Fieldale Towel Mill, holds towel being admired by Mrs. Stone (center) and Addie Munday, manager of the Fieldcrest Lodge.

Fieldale Employees Served By New Personnel Building

The new Personnel Building at the Fieldale Towel Mill at Fieldale, Va., provides modern facilities for employment and personnel procedures. The new building, occupied December 1, 1969, replaced the former Personnel Building which burned in March, 1969.

Situated in an attractive setting facing southeast on Marshall Way as one enters the town of Fieldale from the east, the handsome building contains over 4,000 square feet of floor space.

Facilities provided include a lobby, waiting room, personnel offices, employees store, storage rooms, conference room and medical department.

The accompanying pictures show some interior views of the new Personnel Building which provides services for the employees of the Fieldale plant.

Appointed Foreman

Richard R. McDonald has been promoted to foreman of Winding, Setting and Beaming at the Karastan Rug Mill. He formerly was a section foreman in the same department.

Mr. McDonald has been with Fieldcrest since 1960 when he was employed as an assistant foreman in the Karastan Dyeing Department. He served in that capacity for eight years prior to his transfer to the Winding, Setting, Beaming Department in September, 1968. He became a section foreman in July, 1969.

A native of Charleston, S. C., Mr. McDonald graduated from the College of Charleston with a B. S. degree in chemistry. He was on active duty with the Army for six months before he joined Fieldcrest and again served for nearly a year while on leave from Karastan Dyeing Department.
