

W. G. Hunnings congratulates Virginia Wade (second from left) and Pearl Kennon on 25-year records. Robert Hamilton, Sheeting Weave Room foreman, is at right.

Coincidences Seen In 25-Year Anniversaries

When W. G. Hunnings, mill manager, went to the Sheeting Mill recently to present two 25-year awards, he did not realize how convenient it would be to get the two recipients together.

The awards were for Virginia Wade and Pearl Kennon, who had just completed 25 years of continuous service. They are both weavers and, believe it or not, are weavers on the same set of looms, Mrs. Wade on the first shift and Mrs. Kennon on the second.

By further coincidence, they live on the same side of the same street (Ridge Avenue in the Draper section) with only three houses between them.

Their continuous service records show that Mrs. Wade was employed on April 22 and Mrs. Kennon on April 23, in 1945.
