

Data Processing team members, from left, are Beatrice Mabe, Evelyn Belcher, Peggie Bouldin, Shirley Mabe, captain; Carolyn Carter and Mozelle Garrell.

Special Projects team members, left to right, are Margaret Bell, Betty Watkins, captain; Pauline Jackson, Dot Barham and Anne Cobb.

Special awards were presented to, from left, Renate Smart, Sportsmanship award; Merrilee Swift, high scratch game, 266; Margaret Bell, high scratch set, 604; Polly Burnette, second high average, 172; Anne Cobb, high average, 177; Ann Wilson,

high handicap series, 645; and Peggie Bouldin, high handicap game, 243. League officers (pictured above, right) are, from left, Lucille Carter, vice president; Bobbie O'dell, president; and Ann Wilson, secretary.

Employee's Son Is Selected For Governor's School

Jimmy Ferguson, a 17-year-old junior at Morehead High School, is among the 400 outstanding North Carolina high school students selected to attend the Governor's School this summer for eight weeks.

The Governor's School, which starts

MONDAY, MAY 25, 1970

June 21, is designed to help prepare gifted students for their future tasks of creative leadership.

Jimmy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ferguson, was selected for his ability in mathematics.

At Morehead he is a member of the Honor Society, Math Club, football and baseball teams.

Jimmy's mother, Mary G. Ferguson, is employed in the Setting Department office of the Karastan Mill. His grandmother, Ethel Gilley Thornton, and aunt, Ruby Matthews, are employed in the Sheet Finishing Mill Sewing Department.

Martha Mitchell

Shown in the accompanying picture is Martha Brooksie Mitchell, who was one year old when the picture was made.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mitchell. Martha's grandfather, Joe Mitchell, works in Sheeting Carding.

Women Bowlers End Season With Banquet

The Fieldcrest Women's Bowling League concluded the season with the Data Processing team winning the league championship. Runner-up was the Special Projects team.

A banquet was held at the Mar-Gre restaurant honoring the team champions and individual prize winners.

Bobbie O'dell, president of the league, presided at the banquet and secretary, Ann Wilson, presented special awards. Jenny Robertson, selected by secret ballot as the 1970 Bowling Queen, was unable to attend due to illness.

Chrystal McNeal

Pictured at left is Chrystal Yvonne McNeal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. McNeal. Chrystal was six months old when the picture was taken, is now eight months old. Mr. McNeal works in the Blanket Warehouse, Eden.