JANINE ATKINSON OGBURN

Scholarship Recipients Among Graduates

James Rodger Finney received his B. S. degree in agricultural education from Virginia Polytechnic Institute. He will teach vocational agriculture at Chatham High School, Chatham, Va.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Finney of the Cascade, Va. area. Mr. Finney, who now farms, was a weaver at the Blanket Mill for several years.

James Rodger Finney worked at the Fieldcrest Store in Eden some of the summers while attending VPI.

Janine Atkinson Ogburn received her bachelor of arts degree from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Atkinson, of Eden. Her mother (Nadine) is a technician in the Physical Testing Laboratory.

The graduate is married to R. Glenn Ogburn, Jr., and lives at Madison.

Two New Supervisory Appointments Are Announced

Charles E. Fry has rejoined Fieldcrest as an assistant foreman in the Blanket Mill Weave Room. He formerly was an assistant foreman in the Bedspread Weave Room but resigned in March, 1969.

A native of Galax, Va., he was for 11 years a weave room supervisor at Galax Weaving Co. Immediately before joining the Bedspread Mill in September, 1968, he supervised and trained personnel in converting from dobby to jacquard weaving at James Fabrics, Cheraw, S. C.

William W. Martin was promoted from second hand to assistant foreman in the Blanket Warehouse Storage and Shipping Department effective July 1.

Mr. Martin joined Fieldcrest in 1962 as a sheeting batcher in the Cloth Finishing Department of the Bleachery. Since that time he has worked as a kier operator, bedspread batcher and weft straightener.

He entered the supervisory training program in March, 1968, and after completion of the program worked as a second hand in the Storage and Ship-
