

UNC-G Plans Evening Courses In Business

Fieldcresters wishing to further their education should consider the graduate and undergraduate evening courses being offered by the Department of Business and Economics at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Courses available include: Business Law, Human Behavior in the Business Organization, Concepts in Accounting, Business Finance, Personnel Administration, Principles of Marketing, Management Process, Marketing Management, Operations Research, Managerial Economics, and Property and Casualty Insurance.

The courses will be conducted one night a week from 7 p.m. until 10 p.m. on the UNC-G campus. Advising and registering of graduate students is scheduled for September 14 from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. Undergraduate students will register September 15 between the same hours. Instruction is to begin September 18.

More details concerning these UNC-G courses are available at the Fieldcrest Training Department for the information of interested employees.

Receives Degree

Peggy Susan Billhimer, daughter of Mrs. Peggy V. Billhimer, received her B.S. degree in human relations from High Point College at High Point.

During her college career Miss Billhimer was vice president and pledge trainer for Zeta Tau Alpha sorority, vice president of the American Humanics Foundation, advisor to the High Point City Youth Council and junior high advisor for the First Reformed United Church of Christ.
