

Fieldcrest Scholars who attended luncheon in their honor, from left to right above, are Terry Chilton, Karen Hodges, Norma Shively, Sandra Combs, Carole Meeks, Sarah Dunivant, Vicki Brackett and Clara Shepherd.

More Fieldcrest Scholarships recipients who attended luncheon, shown above left to right, are Michael Hall, James Bryant, Donald Lawson, Ronald Broadnax, Marvin Brinkley, Allen Cobler, Naomi Carter and Connie Philpott. Scholarship winners unable to attend were Richard Brinkley, William Husak, Susan Gambill, Cathy Gillie, Sandra Green, Mary Ellen Lay, Fair Merriman, Jerry Nance, Carolyn Phillips and Nancy Thomas.

Promoted To Foreman

Mack C. McDaniel has been promoted from assistant foreman to foreman of the Cutting and Sewing Department at the Sheet Finishing Mill at Eden, replacing Gerald Warren. A native of Axton, Va., Mr. McDaniel has worked in the Cutting and Sewing Department most of the years since 1947 except for four years he spent in military service. He began as a sheet bearer and later worked as service operator, fixer and second hand. He became an assistant foreman in 1965.

Scholarship Winners Honored At Luncheon

(Continued from Page One)

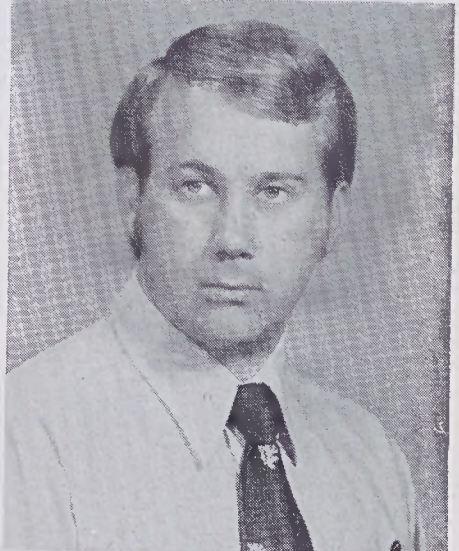

Company's generosity and interest in education. "You are doing something that will mean much in the future. We are much aware that the schools can count on this interest in education at the heart of the Fieldcrest organization. In this community we look upon Fieldcrest as a friend and as our strongest supporter," Mr. Pressley said.

Each of the scholarship winners was asked to introduce himself or herself and tell of college plans and plans for their future careers.

Dr. William McGehee, director of personnel research and development, who is chairman of the Fieldcrest Scholarship Committee, presided and introduced the following officials: R. A. Harris, senior vice president-manufacturing; A. L. Jackson, vice president-domestics manufacturing.

Also H. H. Newton, vice president-industrial relations; W. B. Lucas, assistant secretary and general counsel; R. F. Bell, personnel manager, North Carolina Finishing Company division; Otis Marlowe, editor, The Mill Whistle; and O. L. Raines, personnel manager, Fieldale Towel Mill.

Joins Fieldcrest

Penn A. Anthony, Jr., formerly of Patrick Springs, Va., has joined Fieldcrest Mills, Inc., as a shift supervisor in the Weave Room at the Karastan Rug Mill.

Mr. Anthony graduated from Hardin Reynolds High School, Critz, Va., and from Draughton's Business College, Winston-Salem, where he majored in business administration. He served in the Air Force for four years, 1964-68, and was a jet aircraft mechanic.