

HOWARD T. EDWARDS

JAMES H. NELSON

Two Are Honored For Long Service Records

Howard T. Edwards of the Blanket Mill and James H. Nelson of the Draper Sheeting Mill have completed 40-year records of continuous service with the company. Each has been presented the Fieldcrest 40-year service pin and a letter of commendation from G. William Moore, president and chairman of Fieldcrest Mills, Inc.

Mr. Edwards, a native of Vesta, Va., has continuous service since September 29, 1930, when he began working in the Sheeting Mill Spinning Department. Since that time he has worked at various jobs in the Sheeting, Bedspread and Blanket Mill.

In 1960 he became a doffer in the Cotton Spinning Department of the Blanket Mill and continues in that classification.

Mr. Nelson was employed as a roving man in the Sheeting Mill September 24, 1930. He became an oiler in the Spinning Department in 1943 and works in that capacity at the present time. He is a native of Caswell County.

G. L. Caraway Heads Cancer Society Unit

George L. Caraway, manager of warehousing and customer service at the Fieldale Towel Mill, has been named president of the Martinsville-Henry County unit of the American Cancer Society.

Other officers elected at the annual meeting held in the assembly room at the First National Bank of Martinsville and Henry County, were:

first vice president, Dr. George A. Stermer, Jr.; second vice president, Harry A. Copenhaver, Jr.; secretary, Mrs. F. Paul Turner, Jr.; and treasurer, G. S. Fitz-Hugh, Jr.

Various officials, chairmen and volunteers were recognized for their efforts in the recent successful Crusade during which the goal of $23,582 was raised. Mr. Copenhaver, 1970 Crusade chairman, presented the awards to volunteers.

Mr. Caraway, the new president, is active in various civic affairs at Fieldale and Martinsville. He is president of the Piedmont Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, an executive of the local Red Cross chapter, a member of the Chamber of Commerce, a Mason, Shriner and Rotarian.
