New lines to be introduced at the January home furnishings market were previewed by the Karastan Mill's 25-Year Club members at their annual meeting Saturday, November 7, in the Burton Grove School auditorium.

W. B. Guinan, president of the Karastan Marketing Division, showed the new items and discussed developments in marketing. He described the growth of Karastan's contract business and showed a number of filmed television commercials currently being used to promote Karastan rugs and carpets.

In bringing greetings from the general management of Fieldcrest Mills, Inc., R. A. Harris, senior vice president-manufacturing, congratulated the group on their long service and expressed appreciation for their "fine contribution to the success that Fieldcrest has made."

Towel Mill Recognizes Top Weavers, Fixers

The Fieldale Towel Mill's leading weavers and loom fixers are listed below for the most recent period of record.

The "Weavers of the Week" are those with the lowest percent of seconds with respect to the standards for the various loom groups.

The "Top Fixers" are determined through a combination of low seconds and high loom efficiency on their respective sections.

Dobby Terry Elbert Alderman
Jacquard Terry Frank Bradley

Fixers—W/E November 1

Dobby Terry Glen Clark
Jacquard Terry Wilford Jones

He told of his pleasure in meeting the long-service employees and extended best wishes for their "continued good health and prosperity."

J. P. Kitchens, division vice president-Karastan rug manufacturing, previewed mill activities during the recent year and discussed the goals for 1971. He compared conditions 25 years ago with the present time, pointing out the tremendous increases in wages and benefits.

"Backbone of Operation"

J. G. Cunningham, plant manager at Karastan who was the master of ceremonies, congratulated the new members coming into the club this year and declared that the long-service employees are the "backbone of this operation." He recognized a number of well-known retired members, a number of married couples who are members of the club and some of the mill's longest serving employees who are still at work.

New members welcomed into the club included:

Newland N. Baucom, A. Lucille Carter, Helen S. Craddock, Maurice Fagge, Charlie G. Hall, Elton Hall, Keaton, Roger H. Myers, Lee P. Peterson, James H. Roberts, James L. Stephens, William Qucell Strutton, W. Washburn and Ruben H. Wray.

The drawings for attendance prizes were conducted by Geneva Reynolds and Newland Baucom. Winners were G. Whitten who received a 9x12 Karastan rug, and Bud R. Roberts who was awarded a 3 x 5 Alexei rug.

R. A. Turner, Sr., gave the invocation preceding a luncheon served in the school cafeteria.
