

THE MILL WHISTLE

Fieldcrest
COORDINATED FASHIONS
FOR BED AND BATH

Karastan
AMERICA'S FINEST POWER-LACQUERED WOOL

Vol. 29

Eden, N. C., November 30, 1970

No. 11

Children's Parties Set For December 20

The Piccadilly Puppet Circus, presented by Julie Thomas and Ken Daniel, of Atlanta, Ga., will be the featured entertainment at the children's Christmas parties sponsored by Fieldcrest Mills at Eden and Fieldale, Va.

The parties are scheduled for Sunday, December 20, with the Fieldale party set for 2 p.m. in the Fieldale-Collinsville High School gymnasium and the Eden party for 4 p.m. in the Morehead

High School auditorium.

In addition to the puppet show the program will include songs by the Fieldcresters Quartet of Eden. The quartet will present a brief program and will join with the children in the singing of Christmas songs.

Santa Claus will appear at each party and will have treats for all of the children under 13 years of age. Supervisors and other mill officials will assist Santa Claus in handing out the treats.

The children of all Fieldcrest employees are cordially invited. Tickets may be obtained from the department supervisors beginning Monday December 14. It is suggested that parents accompany smaller children to the party.

Christmas parties are also being scheduled for the children of employees in other plant locations and the dates of those parties will be announced locally.

The Piccadilly Circus Puppets were created by Julie Thomas and Ken Daniel, two talented young people from Atlanta, Ga., and present a unique and entertaining story of what goes on in a zany and wonderful circus troupe.

Julie Thomas is a Chicago native but has lived in the Nashville, Tenn., area for most of her life. She has appeared on radio and television in Nashville and Atlanta and has been the star in several productions of the Atlanta Children's Theatre. She created many of the pup-

(Continued on Page Four)

Left, and Ellsworth Perkins. George Krantz, shipping foreman, is at far right.

Blankets Donated For East Pakistan Relief

The phone rang in the Company's executive offices at Eden last week and it was the National Red Cross in Washington calling to request aid from Fieldcrest in the relief of the people in disaster-stricken East Pakistan. The request was for lightweight blankets and the Company promptly agreed to donate 2,000 cotton sheet blankets made in Eden.

Within an hour after receiving notice, George Krantz, shipping foreman, and his crew at the Blanket Warehouse had loaded a truck and sent it on its way to the regional airport at Greensboro. By happenstance, Old Dominion

Freight Line had an empty van in the warehouse area. A tractor and driver were quickly made available. Old Dominion transported the blankets to the airport from where they went by Eastern Airlines air freight to Washington. They were then flown to East Pakistan.

In commenting on the emergency project, Mr. Krantz said, "It took us less than an hour to load the truck after we got the word. I'd say the truck was at the airport within another hour." Johnny Abbott, Ellsworth Perkins and James Price, of the shipping crew, loaded the blankets at the Nantucket Warehouse loading dock.

Good Showings Made In Finance Campaigns

Employees of the Mount Holly Spinning Mill, the Laurelcrest Carpets division and the Columbus Towel Mill have achieved outstanding results in their respective community fund campaigns.

For the sixth consecutive year, 100% of the Mount Holly employees participated in the Gaston County United Fund Appeal by making contributions in some amount. At the end of the plant's sixth successful campaign, each of the 101 employees had contributed a Fair Share or better. Of the 101, 98 had signed for giving on a continuing basis.

The Mount Holly employees gave a total of $2,027.48, for an average contribution of $20.07 per employee. In addition, the Company through the Fieldcrest Foundation gave $352, making a combined gift of $2,379.48 from the Mount Holly employees and the Company.

A. H. Justice, plant manager, commended the employees for their excellence.

(Continued on Page Eight)