

New Appointments Announced At Mills

Enforbia, president of Foremost Screen Print, Inc.; H. L. Morris, general manager, Scottsboro Rug Mill; and R. F. Sambleson, division vice president, automatic blanket manufacturing, will continue to report to Mr. Jackson.

Also effective January 1, M. D. Rochelle, president and general manager of the North Carolina Finishing Company division, will report to A. L. Jackson. Mr. Rochelle previously reported to R. A. Harris, senior vice president, manufacturing.

Mr. Hunnings, a division vice president since June, 1970, was previously manager of the sheet operation and earlier was plant manager of the Bedspread Mill. He received his B.S. degree in textiles from North Carolina State University and joined Fieldcrest in June, 1951, as a management trainee.

Training Assignments

He worked on his various training assignments at the Bedspread Mill until August, 1952, when he was called into military service. He served four years and upon his return resumed his training at the Bedspread Mill.

He served as assistant foreman in the Weave Room and as foreman in the Warp, Wind and Twist Department. He was transferred to the Engineering Department as a textile engineer in June, 1958, continuing there until his appointment as plant manager of the Bedspread Mill January 1, 1961.

Mr. Stone, also a division vice president since June, 1970, had been manager of the Fieldale Towel Mill and earlier was assistant manager. He is a graduate of Clemson University with a B. S. degree in chemistry and of the Institute of Textile Technology with an M. S. degree in textile technology.

Joined Company In 1957

He joined Fieldcrest in 1957 as a quality control engineer in the Research and Quality Control Department. He left shortly afterwards for six months of active duty as an officer in the Army Signal Corps.

Soon after his return he became a management trainee assigned to the Blanket Mill. He served as foreman of various departments and later was a staff assistant to the superintendent. He became assistant superintendent at the Fieldale Towel Mill in 1962.

Mr. Stone was promoted to superintendent of sewing, shipping, warehousing and customer service in January, 1965. He subsequently advanced to assistant mill manager, mill manager and then to division vice president-Fieldale Towel manufacturing.

Mr. Kametches was technical superintendent of Fieldcrest's sheeting mills prior to becoming plant manager at Forest City. He earlier served as plant manager of the Sheet Finishing Mill
