

Top Weavers, Fixers

The Fieldale Towel Mill's outstanding weavers and loom fixers are listed below for the most recent periods of record.

The "Weavers of the Week" are those with the lowest percent of seconds with respect to the standards for the various loom groups.

The "Top Fixers" are determined through a combination of low seconds and high loom efficiency on their respective sections.

DANNY B. LEWIS

Changes Announced At Sheet Finishing Mill

In new supervisory appointments at the Sheet Finishing Mill, Carson D. Slaughter was named manager-office, warehousing and shipping and Danny B. Lewis was appointed a shift foreman of the Cutting and Sewing Department.

Mr. Slaughter was office manager at the Sheet Finishing Mill immediately prior to his new assignment. He joined Fieldcrest in February, 1941, as a server in the Warping Department of the old Rayon Mill.

He later worked as a twister hand in the Twisting Department and in July, 1946, was made head supply clerk at the Rayon Mill. In November, 1952, he became a scheduler in the Bleaching and continued in that capacity until his appointment as office manager in 1965.

Mr. Lewis came to work at Fieldcrest in June, 1965, as a service operator in the Cutting and Sewing Department at the Sheet Finishing Mill. In September, 1966, he became a remnant hauler and in October, 1968, a Monfort cutting machine operator.

In May, 1970, he was appointed supervisory trainee in the Sheet Finishing Mill and continued in that capacity until his latest promotion.

Joins Fieldcrest

Kristin Borglund has joined the Fieldcrest Advertising and Sales Promotion Department as manager of publicity and sales training, reporting to J. P. Robertson, vice president and director of advertising and sales promotion, Fieldcrest Marketing Division. She succeeds Mrs. June Mohler who has returned to the University of Maryland for her Ph. D. degree in education.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Miss Borglund attended the University of Texas and Ohio State University, from which she graduated with a B. S. degree in education.

Prior to joining Fieldcrest Miss Borglund taught in Chicago and New York schools before entering the field of sales promotion with the Galey and Lord Division of Burlington Industries, Inc.
