

... went to work on third shift in 1952, has worked ... since then as weaver at Karastan Rug Mill.

Mason Murphy, loom fixer, Sheeting Mill Weave Room, has been on third shift since 1946, has continuous service since 1933.

... get up at quarter past ten every day, ... he says. "This gives me the whole morn-

... Joe Williams frequently varies his sleep- ... ally sleeps from one in the afternoon until ... "It all depends on how I feel when I get

... employees have no trouble sleeping while ... is awake. For them, it is a matter of ad-

... she has learned to sleep with all sorts of ... eeping," Mrs. Harvey says, "they would ... out from under me to wake me." Hattie ... she can actually sleep better in the day- ... an at night.

... there are advantages and disadvantages ... m. until 7 a. m. but as one former third ... "It's a pretty sight to see the sun coming ... your night's work."

... there will always be those who prefer ... hours with the rising of the sun.

Joe W. Williams, tub tender, Karastan Dyeing Dept., gets to see more of his three children by working on the third shift.

... Blakett, Blanket Cotton Carding ... his mornings free to "piddle".

John T. Broadnax of the Karastan Dyeing Dept. plays baseball in his spare time.

Mildred Estes, Blanket Cotton Spinning Dept., likes being with children during day.