band, YMCA treasurer for 45 years. Mrs. Weaver herself was closely associated with the YMCA as director of the Girls Club for many years.

Mr. Weaver, who was unable to attend, sent a letter congratulating the community on the new YMCA and pointing to the far-reaching influence of the Central YMCA in its 60 years of existence.

The Rev. Marvin Southard, president of the Eden Ministerial Association, gave the invocation which was followed by a "dedication in music" by a choral group under the direction of Ralph Graves.

The program closed with the group singing of "America the Beautiful" led by Carl Webb. Open house and refreshments followed the dedication program.
