Burns security force at Smithfield took first aid certification course.

Two First Aid Courses Taught At Smithfield

Members of the Burns security force and selected plant personnel from the Automatic Blanket Plant, Smithfield, have completed first aid courses taught by Sgt. Alton Wilson of the Burns security organization at Eden.

The course for the security men was to train them in helping to provide protection and safety for employees. The course for plant personnel was for departmental first aid attendants and placed emphasis on rendering first aid for industrial-type injuries.

First aid attendants completing the course were Glenda Hinnant, Myrtle Jones, Dayton Barber, Lois Keith, Howard Moore, Eddie Wood and Dennis Davis.

Fieldcrest Foreman Is Cited For Good Deed

A Fieldcrest Mills supervisor has received recognition for being a Good Samaritan in helping an Arizona couple who were stranded near Eden when their car broke down.

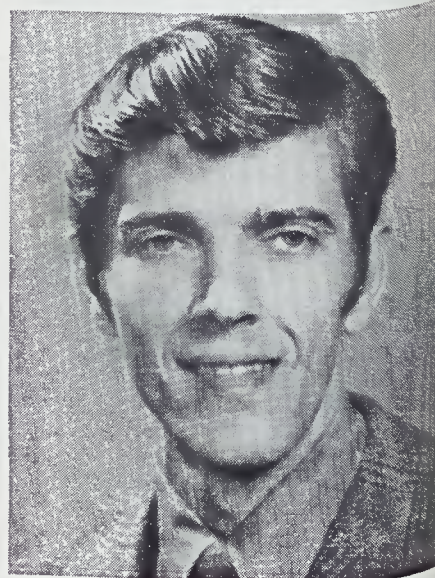

Jerry H. Corum, a shift supervisor at the Draper Sheeting Mill, was the subject of a long write-up in the Martinsville (Va.) Bulletin in connection with his good deed.

The story unfolded Sunday afternoon, July 18, when Mr. and Mrs. Greyson Sandy of Phoenix, Arizona, left Martinsville for the return trip to Phoneix via Charlotte. Near Mayodan they had car trouble and pulled off the road.

While they were deciding what to do, Mr. Corum stopped to see if he could help. He and Mr. Sandy spent two or three hours trying to start the car without success. Mr. Corum made several trips of several miles to obtain water and another trip to get a jump cable.

Finally, Mr. Corum went off in search of a mechanic, but because it was Sunday afternoon, he had trouble in finding one. After trying three or four places, he met with success.

Meanwhile the plot had thickened. Mr. Corum was not through with his good deeds for the day. Up the road a little way another stranger was having trouble with his Opel. He walked down to the Sandy car. Mr. Corum, seeing that the Sandys were in good hands, returned with the man to the Opel.

He found that the Opel needed only
