

Karastan People Win Safety Barbecue

Employees of the Karastan Rug and Service Center are shown in these pictures enjoying a barbeque dinner earned by their good safety record.

An average of 2,000 safe hours per Karastan employee was reached July 19, entitling them to the barbeque dinner under terms of the Fieldcrest safety contest.

Through June their total accumulation of hours was 1,730,297. Their last disabling injury occurred July 17, 1970.
