Captain Ahern Awarded Medal

Air Force Capt. Daniel B. Ahern has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for valor in flying vitally needed ammunition to a South Korean airfield in the face of enemy fire.

The Air Force also announced it had presented Captain Ahern his second, third and fourth awards of the Air Medal for "outstanding airmanship and courage" on other vital missions, while he was flying a G-7A tactical airlift aircraft.

Captain Ahern now is stationed at Yokota Air Base in Japan as pilot of a four-engine jet weather reconnaissance plane. His awards were presented in ceremonies at the Japanese base.

The young pilot was a 1964 graduate of San Rafael (Calif.) High School and graduated from the Air Force Academy, where he earned honors as captain of the fencing team in 1968.

He is married to the former Ellen Gaither of Prescott, Ariz.

Captain Ahern's parents are Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Ahern of 455 Calle La Mesa in Novata, Calif. His father is the Northern California sales representative for the Karastan Marketing Division.
