CHAMPIONS — Members of Blanket Warehouse team, from left, Nathan Hicks, captain; Leonard Smith, William Swann, Henry Williams, William Wilkerson and Jack Galloway.

RUNNERS-UP — Blanket Finishing team, from left, J. W. Washburn, Woody Wilmouth, Roy Kasten, Wally Blackwell and Wayne Chilton. Willie Chilton was not present for picture.

DIVISION AWARD WINNERS — Left to right, David Haley, Johnny Hudspeth, Henry Williams, Dan Squires, Charles Terry, Clarence Stophel, and James Hopkins. Other division award winners were not present for picture.

LEAGUE AWARD WINNERS — From left to right, Nathan Hicks, Henry Gover, Rod Farlow, Bobby Foley and Wally Blackwell. Oliver Turner was not present for picture.

BEST SPORTSMANSHIP — Best sportsmanship award was won by Bedspread Finishing, Joe Smith, Napoleon Blackstock, captain; and Perry Sanders. Morris Clark and Jesse Strange were not present for picture.

Blanket Warehouse Wins

In the final rolloffs in the Fieldcrest Men's Evening League at the Bowling Center in Eden, the Blanket Warehouse defeated Blanket Finishing Mill to win the league championship.

The victory was based on total pins: 3,053 for the Blanket Warehouse and 2,937 for the Blanket Finishing Mill.

Team trophies and individual awards were presented at the league banquet held at the Colonial House restaurant and attended by 53 persons. League awards were made as follows:

Nathan Hicks, high game scratch, 257; Wally Blackwell, high average, 185; Henry Gover, high average runner-up, 179; Bobby Foley, high set scratch, 625; Rod Farlow, high game handicap, 286; Oliver Turner high set handicap, 691.

Division "A" awards were presented to: Johnny Hudspeth, high game scratch, 249; Doug Shively, high average, 175.4; Bobby Manuel, second high average, 175.2; Charles Terry, high set scratch, 606; Clarence Stophel, high set handicap, 674.

Division "B" award winners included: Henry Williams, high game scratch, 241; Carl Rhodes, high average, 175.7; James Hopkins, second high average, 175.5; Dan Squires, high set scratch, 611; David Haley, high game handicap, 265.

6