Five Employees Complete 40-Yr. Records

Five Fieldcrest employees have recently completed 40-year records of continuous service with the Company. They are Willie O. Young, Karastan Rug Mill; Ernest K. Grogan, Karastan Rug Mill; Annie T. Underwood, Draper Sheeting Mill; H. Elwood Williams, Engineering Department; and James W. Wade, Blanket Greige Mill.

All five have been presented the 40-year diamond-and-gold Fieldcrest service pin, a $40 gift certificate at the Fieldcrest Store and a letter of commendation from President William C. Battle.

Mr. Young, a weaver at the Karastan Rug Mill, completed 40 years of continuous service on September 21.

He began his continuous service on September 21, 1932, at the Karastan Rug Mill, but had worked there as early as 1926. He has worked the entire 40 years as a weaver, which is his present classification.

Mr. Grogan, a frame inspector and repairer in the Weave Room at Karastan Rug Mill, completed 40 years of service on September 14.

He began his continuous service at the Karastan Rug Mill as a threader in 1932, but had worked there as early as 1925.

He was a tube repairer, floor worker, creeler and frame inspector before becoming a frame inspector and repairer, his present classification, in 1956.

Mrs. Underwood, a spinner at the Draper Sheeting Mill, completed 40 years of continuous service on September 23.

She began employment at the Draper Sheeting Mill September 23, 1932, as a spinner and has continued in that classification to the present time.

Mr. Williams, of the Engineering Department, completed 40 years of continuous service on September 20. He was employed at the Karastan Rug Mill in the Filter Plant in 1932. He had worked as a filter plant operator, wool scourer, engineer and safety director before becoming a sanitary and filter plant engineer in 1965. He continues in that classification at the present time.

Mr. Wade, a loom fixer at the Blanket Greige Mill, completed a 40-year record of service with the Company on September 15.

He began employment in 1932 as a quill collector. He became a breakdown man in March of 1942 and a loom fixer in August of 1942. He continues in that classification at the present time.

Secretaries Plan 1st Educational Workshop

The Eden Chapter of The National Secretaries Association (International) will sponsor its first educational workshop on Saturday, October 7, at the Whitcomb Student Center, Rockingham Community College.

The workshop committee includes Corinda Thompson, publicity chairman; Sharon Robertson, program chairman; Hilda Martin, registration chairman; Lou Stophel, workshop chairman; and Ruby Ann Bousman, president. All are from the General Offices, Eden.

Keynote speaker will be Carl D. Willis, P.E., director of public works for the City of High Point, who will discuss the human elements of the secretary in relationship to management, co-workers, customers.

The speaker is expected to stress enthusiasm, motivation, participation, teamwork and the overall satisfaction of trying to be the best of what one is and what one is trained to be.

Other speakers will be John P. McMichael, vice president and general manager of Macfield Texturing, Inc., in Reidsville; and Joan City, teacher and counselor at Rockingham Community College. Panel discussions and question-and-answer periods will be held following the talks.

SMILE

Frightening to think about the shape the world's in. If Moses came down from Mt. Sinai today, the two tablets he'd carry would probably be Excedrin.
