

At Eden Rose Show at the Fieldcrest Store, Robert A. Harris, Fieldcrest senior vice president, congratulates Mrs. Henry Lillard, winner of the Sweepstakes Award given by Fieldcrest Mills. In the photo at left, William Ziglar, of the Central Filter Plant, receives the B. E. Ivie Memorial Award from C. C. Campbell, a retired employee of Fieldcrest Mills and treasurer of the Eden Rose Society. This award is given for the best group of three hybrid teas of different varieties exhibited in the show.

Eden Rose Show Attracts Large Crowd

Winner of the Fieldcrest Mills Sweepstakes Award at the annual Eden Rose Show held Saturday, September 30, at the Fieldcrest Store was Mrs. Henry Lillard of Eden.

Mrs. Lillard, who is recording secretary of the Eden Rose Society, won the Sweepstakes Award by receiving the largest number of blue ribbons awarded in the show.

The Queen of Show award was won by Mrs. Mirriam Dean, president-elect of the Winston-Salem Rose Society. The Queen of Show is the outstanding individual award given in the show.

Featured at the show, in addition to the more than 400 entries, was an exhibit entitled "Roses Around The World" created by Paul Peterson, of Eden.

Twenty-five different roses were displayed with a world map in the background pointing to the country where each is hybridized and grown. Displayed were roses from Bermuda, Northern Ireland, England, Germany, France, Italy, Japan and also six additional ones from hybridizers in the United States.

Parade Date Is Set

The date for the sixth annual Draper Christmas Parade has been set for Saturday, December 2.

The event, which draws spectators from throughout the county, will be held during the morning in the Draper business section of Eden. The exact hour is to be announced.

A highlight of the parade will be the selection of a "Parade Princess" from the Draper section.

Also featured will be floats, bands, city and county officials, horses, go carts and beauty queens.

The parade is sponsored by the Draper Y's Men's Club, Eden Fire Station No. 2 (Draper) and Draper merchants. Heading the arrangements is Dan Squires, of the Sheeting Mill Spinning Department and a Y's Men Member.

This year's parade is expected to be Draper's biggest and most exciting yet, Mr. Squires said.

Anyone interested in participating in the parade may contact Mr. Squires at 635-5343, or any Y's Men or firemen from Draper.

Non Woven Personnel Land 10-Quart Bucket

Several Non Woven Blanket Mill personnel recently enjoyed a weekend of deep sea fishing at Morehead City. Prize catch of the day was a 10-quart bucket.