

25-Yr. Meet Sets Attendance Record

One of the best-attended 25-Year Club meetings on record was held in the Draper Elementary School cafeteria Saturday morning, November 4, for members in the Draper Sheeting Mill, Sheet Finishing Mill, General Offices and Specials Department.

In brief remarks, Robert A. Harris, senior vice president, described the growth of Fieldcrest Mills, Inc., and on behalf of the general management thanked the long-service employees for their contribution to the success of the Company.

C. L. Kametches, division vice president and general manager of sheet manufacturing, reported on mill activities and spoke in optimistic terms concerning the future business outlook.

Mr. Kametches expressed appreciation for the cooperation and good work of the 25-Year Club members. He said people are the Company's most important asset and described the sheeting operation as "a real team effort."

K. W. Foddrell, plant manager of the Sheet Finishing Mill, was master of ceremonies and presented the new members becoming eligible for the 25-Year Club this year. He recognized 50-year employees as follows: Mamie J. Burcham, W. A. Blackburn, S. L. Golden, Annie V. Lea, Mollie B. Lea and A. D. Weaver.

Drawings For Prizes

Entertainment was furnished by 12-year-old Sharon Sheckells, with Evelyn Lewis as accompanist; and by The Ambassadors. Both features were greatly enjoyed. Miss Sheckells is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Medford, both retired from the Sheeting Weave Room.

J. Otis Robertson, a 25-Year Club member from the Sheeting Weave Room, gave the invocation preceding the luncheon.
