

Scenes From 27th NCF 25-Year Club Banquet

North Carolina Finishing Company's 25-Year Club held its twenty-seventh annual banquet Saturday night, April 20. The banquet, in honor of employees with 25 years or more of service, was held at the Crystal Lounge of the College Community Centre.

Ten new members were welcomed into the 25-Year Club by Morton D. Rochelle, President of the NCF division.

Membership in the Club stands at a total of 406, of which approximately 290 are still active employees of the company.

In addition to the general membership and the new members, the banquet also was attended by Arthur L. Jackson, senior vice-president of manufacturing, Fieldcrest Mills, Inc.; Haven H. Newton, vice-president of industrial relations; Rufus R. Beaver, director of security; Robert L. Moore, director of employee relations; Michael L. Ryan, regional personnel manager; and Harold H. Whitcomb, former chairman of the board of directors. George M. Cohan, vice-president of sales for NCF was also present.

The principal speaker of the evening was Dr. William W. Williamson, minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Salisbury. He congratulated the members of the Club on their loyalty and challenged them to use their years of experience and wisdom in even greater growth in the future.

Dinner music was provided by Billy Burke.

New members in the NCF 25-Year Club are, front row, left to right, Pauline Correll, Ronald Graham. Second row, left to right, V. L. Thompson, D. C. Wagner, E. L. Wofford, M. V. Eagle. Third row, left to right, J. F. Alexander, S. B. Allen, H. J. File. Not shown in photo, W. V. Nance.

H. G. and Florence Young are both retired NCF employees.

Charter member W. G. Lanning has been in 25-Year Club since 1948.

New club member Ronald Graham and wife, Doris.

John and Mildred Potts are retired NCF employees also.

Charter member Jess Wilson has 53 years of service with NCF.

New member Jake Alexander, left, was master of ceremonies. At right is M. D. Rochelle, president of the NCF division.