

Columbus, Phenix City 25-Year Club Meets

Some members of the Columbus, Phenix City 25-Year Club.

The Columbus Towel Mill and the Phenix City Plant 25-Year Club held its annual banquet on Saturday, October 26, at Fieldcrest Mills Lake. The Club welcomed seven new members to its roll, bringing the roster to 27 official members.

R. W. Harris, Phenix City Plant manager, began the evening with the invocation. Mr. Harris also recognized the long-service employees.

W. S. Ayscue, Columbus plant manager, introduced new members who became eligible for the 25-Year Club. The following included James W. Barnes, Alice Ellerbie, Mahota M. Gray, Joe R. Kimbro, Velma C.

Martin, Johnnie L. McLendon, and Betty L. Smith.

C. L. Kametches, division vice-president and general manager, welcomed the club members and reported on the past business year at the plant. Mr. Kametches expressed his thanks and appreciation to all club members.

Members enjoy program.

C. L. Kametches expresses appreciation to 25-Year Club members.

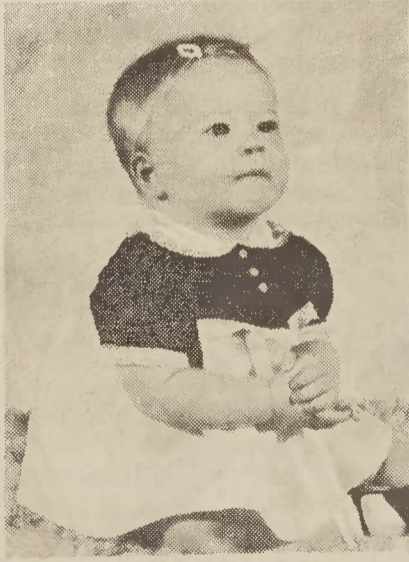

Cake Commemorating 25-Year Club Anniversary.

Shawn McLendon

Eight Months Old

Shawn Fredricka McLendon, three weeks old, is the son of Essie McLendon who is employed as a creeler in the Luffing Department at the Fieldcrest Carpet Mill.

Lisa Beck, eight months old, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Beck. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Swinson. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Alan Beck. Mr. Swinson is employed in the Finishing Department at the North Carolina Finishing Company. Alan Beck is employed in the Put Up Department at North Carolina Finishing.

Employee Honored

Pearlis Dawson, center, a fixer at the Columbus Towel Mill, recently received a towel set in recognition of improvements made to the C-11 loom temple. Mr. Dawson, with the assistance of W. L. Dallas, left, superintendent, modified the temple resulting in greatly reducing towel fringe defects. W. A. Ayscue, plant manager, right, presents the gift and congratulations to Mr. Dawson as Mr. Dallas looks on.

One Year Old

Lori Ellison, who celebrated her first birthday October 20, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Ellison. Her mother, Pam, is employed in the Karastan Service Center. Her father is employed at the Karastan Rug Mill.

Said a wife, "Herb had good luck on his hunting trip — he came back alive."