

Business Courses In Progress

A number of Fieldcrest secretarial personnel and other Eden area secretaries are participating in the secretarial accounting course now being offered at the AMP Building. The course is offered by Rockingham Community College in cooperation with Fieldcrest. The instructor, at right, is Mrs. Cindy Evans of RCC.

Seven Months Old

Joshua Eugene Stump, seven months old, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hassell E. Stump. His father is employed in the Yarn Preparation Department at the Bedsread Mill. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Amon Stump, Sr., both employees of the Bedsread Mill, and Mr. and Mrs. George E. Mitchell.

Motorcycle Trip

Bill Black, an order control clerk at the Karastan Service Center, recently completed a 2,100 mile trip to Miami, Fla. by motorcycle. Others making the trip were members of the Hi-Risers Motorcycle Club of Eden.

Tetanus Shots Continue

Participation in Fieldcrest's tetanus immunization campaign continues to be excellent, according to Dr. Charles G. Young, medical director.

Employees in the Eden area and those at Foremost will be offered the free tetanus boosters during the week of April 14 through April 18 and everyone at those locations is urged to participate.

Employees at the following locations have already received the immunizations: Karastan Worsted and Karastan Spinning (70 percent); Mount Holly (70 percent); N.C. Finishing Sales, New York (57 percent); Karastan and Laurelcrest Marketing Divisions, New York (55 percent); and Fieldcrest and St. Marys Marketing Divisions, New York (34 percent).

In locations where the immunizations have not yet been offered, employees are urged to watch their bulletin boards for the time and place.

number of current handicapped employees, and the employment of handicapped during 1974. Twenty-three percent of NCF's employees, at all levels, have handicaps; and during 1974, 16 percent of the people hired had handicaps.

In addition to the recognition at the awards ceremonies, Mr. Rogers received a letter of commendation from Representative Bill Hefner, Congressman from the 8th Congressional District.

Receiving the Governor's Award automatically means consideration for the National Employer of the Year through the President's Council on Employment of the Handicapped.

One Year Old

Wendy Lavonne Watkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Watkins, celebrated her first birthday March 8. Her mother (Judy) is employed in the Data Processing Department at the General Offices. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Watkins and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hopper, all of Eden.

Byrd Children

Jason Byrd, eight months old, and Bryant Byrd, six years old, are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Byrd. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Agee and Mrs. Gertrude Byrd. Mr. Agee is employed as a section supervisor in the Weave Room at the Bedsread Mill.

CAROL SIMS

Weaving Instructor, Columbus Towel Mill

On The Job At Fieldcrest

Carol Sims, weave instructor, is in charge of the vestibule training for weavers at the Columbus Towel Mill, Columbus, Ga. In carrying out her responsibilities, she has made suggestions which have helped learners as well as experienced weavers.

Two of her suggestions which have been adopted and found to be very effective are: painting the starting points on cam and dobby pattern chain resetting can be done quickly; and, for picks, painting the ha should be in the raise so that weavers can easily and prevent m

These and other suggestions along with a high degree in training new employees make Mrs. Sims an important member of the Columbus Towel Mill team.

Give News To Your Reporter

Mary W. Stephens is The Mill Whistle reporter for the Karastan Service Center. Employees there are encouraged to turn in news, pictures and "Buy . . . Sell . . . Swap" items to her for publication in The Mill Whistle.

Mrs. Stephens has been with Fieldcrest for 27 years and first worked as a payroll clerk in the Karastan Weave Room. However, she has been in order and billing operations during most of her time with the company. She is now an edit clerk in the Karastan Sales Service Department.

Active in civic and religious affairs in Eden, Mrs. Stephens is a past president of the Business and Professional Women's Club and currently in secretary. She is a long-time member and a past president of the Venie J. Weaver Club, an elder at the
