

ing Mill

erous
in the air
several
was astan
years
ccess-
es in s yarn.
fullyontrol
stantly
eaking
or the production of yarns to exact quality requirements. The Laboratory works closely with the Quality Control Departments both at the Karastan and Laurelcrest plants.

Acquisition of this facility strengthened the entire rug and carpet program through the control of quality, lower cost of rug and carpet yarns, flexibility of scheduling and development of new products.

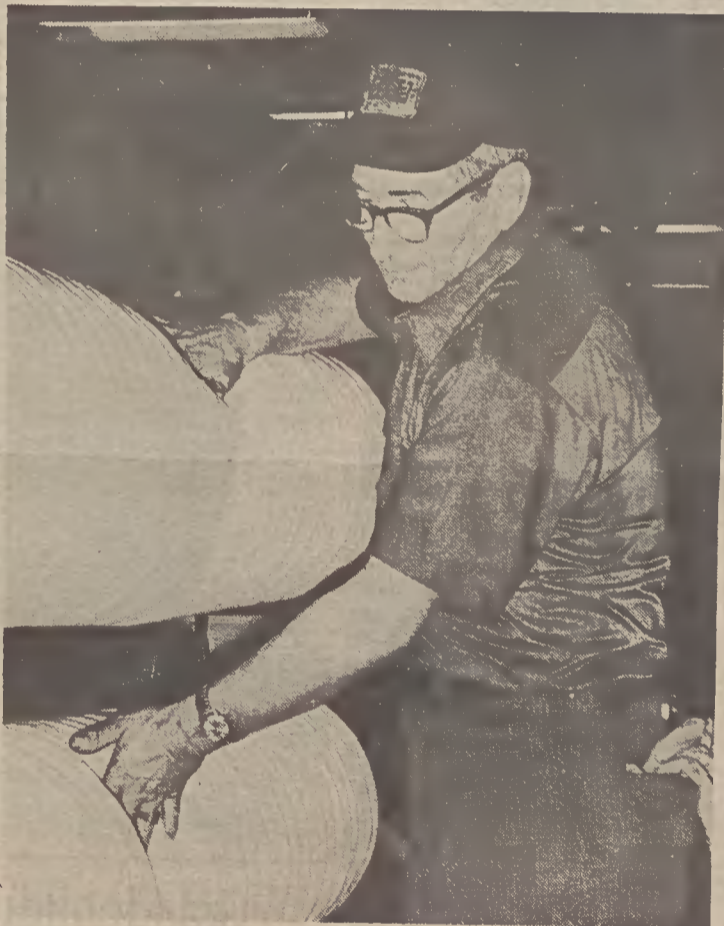

Pictured are some representative employees of the Karastan Spinning Mill.

JAKE FENNER, left, and JAMES E. WILSON, center, are blenders, and VELTON WHITE, right, is a leader, all of the Blending Department.

YARN MAN, Twist, Wind, Reel Department.

EDWARD WINDHAM, grinder-overhauler, Carding Department.

TOMMY HINES, card feeder, Carding Department.

WINDING DEPARTMENT.

THOMAS MAY, left, roving hauler, and RICKY ADAMS, frame changer, both of the Spinning Department.