

65 Grants Are Awarded

(Continued from Page Four)

and will study nursing. Her father is a janitor-watchman at the General Offices and her mother, Ruthie, a burler at the Karastan Rug Mill.

Vincent A. Spears is the son of Mrs. Katie Spears Williams who is employed at the Automatic Blanket Plant. He will be a freshman at North Carolina Central University where he plans to study political science.

Louise Leath Stultz is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Stultz. Her father is a designer at the Karastan Rug Mill. She will enter Rockingham Community College where she plans to study business administration with emphasis on accounting.

Donald L. Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas, will be a freshman at Winston-Salem State University where he will major in business administration. His mother, Ella, is employed at the Karastan Spinning Mill.

Susan Gay Thomas is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baxter Thomas. Her father is a breakdown fixer at the Fieldale Towel Mill. She will be a freshman at Patrick Henry Community College where she plans to study secretarial science.

Karen Angelia Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar O. Tucker, Jr., will be a freshman at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro where she plans to major in biology. Her father is a shift foreman in the Dye House at the Karastan Rug Mill.

Dorothy Jean Williams is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis P. Williams. Her mother, Josie, is employed as a cutter at the Phenix City Plant. Dorothy plans to enter Spelman College as a freshman and to major in science or technology.

William A. Wilson II is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Glen Wilson. His father is a retired employee of the Draper Sheeting Mill. His mother, Edna, is a weaver at the Draper Sheeting Mill. He will enter Rockingham Community College where he plans to take the college parallel course.

Beverly Jo Wood is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron P. Wood. Her father is a section foreman at the Fieldale Towel Mill. She will be a freshman at Longwood College where she plans to major in music education.

Sherita Dale Wilson is the daughter of Mrs. Kathleen S. Wilson and the late Mr. Wilson. Her mother is a sewer at the Blanket Finishing Mill. Sherita will attend Danville Community College and study secretarial work.

Denise Rhodes departs for Arizona. It was her first flight and she made the trip alone.

Sheeting 25-Year Club Will Meet August 21

The 25-Year Club meeting for members in the Draper Sheeting Mill, Sheet Finishing Mill, General Offices and Specials Department will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, August 21, at the Duke Power Ball Field.

A luncheon will be served outdoors following the program.

The Draper Sheeting Mill has a total of 246 members in the 25-year Club. Of this number, 115 are active and 131 retired. Six new members coming into the club this year are: Jack Baker, La A. Callahan, Leonard O. Foster, Grace R. Lawson, Corine B. Pruitt and Paul B. Westbrook.

The Sheet Finishing Mill has 91 members, 47 active and 44 retired.

The General Offices have 69 members of whom 44 are active and 25 are retired. New members becoming eligible for the club this year are W. Giles Hunnings, Jr., division vice president-bed fashions manufacturing; and F. Guerrant Norman, manager of mill accounting for bed fashions and commission finishing.

The Specials Department has 43 members in the club with 14 active and 29 retired. New members are Vivian F. Johnson of the Fieldcrest Store and Samuel J. Smith of the Mechanical Development Department.

Two Years Old

Terrence DeJuan Jones celebrated his second birthday on July 10 at a party given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Jones. His mother, Wanda, is employed in the Service Department at the General Offices.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James D. Jones of Reidsville and Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Galloway of Eden. Mr. Galloway is employed at the General Offices. Mrs. Galloway, Lucy, is employed at the Blanket Greige Mill.

Wins Contest

Thurman Grant, Jr. dye operator in the Yarn Dyeing Department at the Laurelcrest Carpet Plant, was winner of the safety slogan contest for the second six months of 1976. His slogan was "Safety Hurts No One; Accidents Do."

Daughter Of Employee Is Rainbow Representative

Denise Rhodes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Rhodes of Eden, represented North Carolina as representative for the Order of Rainbow for Girls during a four-day Grand Assembly held in Arizona.

While in Arizona, she was special guest of Karen Kelly, representative from that state to North Carolina. The two girls have been corresponding for the past year. Karen presented Denise a flag of North Carolina which she had made and a tray depicting Arizona.

At the Grand Assembly in Raleigh prior to the Arizona meeting, Denise was appointed Grand Religion for North Carolina and will be traveling around the state this year with the Grand Worthy Advisor for North Carolina. During the summer of 1975, Denise was Worthy Advisor for Eden.

Denise's mother, Carol, is employed in the Industrial Relations Department at the General Offices.

Earnings

(Continued from Page One)

marketplace.

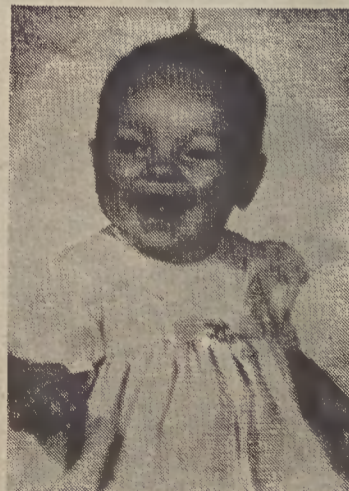

"Although we can expect some relaxation in demand during the first part of the third quarter, we still believe that, barring any unforeseen reversal in the economic recovery, record sales and earnings will be achieved in 1976."

Stegall Children

Monya Renee Stegall, two years old, and Lane Matthew Stegall, 10 years old, are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Garret Stegall. Their father is employed as a fixer in the Yarn Preparation Department at the Fieldale Towel Mill. Their mother, Lillian, is employed as a spinner in the Spinning Department at Fieldale.

MELISSA DENISE BIGGS

JAMES DAVID BIGGS, JR.

Biggs Children

Melissa Denise Biggs, seven months old, and James David Biggs, Jr., two years old, are the children of Mr. and Mrs. David Biggs. Their father is employed at the Sheet Finishing Mill and their maternal grandmother, Lorine Jones, in the Burling Department at the Karastan Rug Mill.