E.S.A. To Hold Annual Art Fair

The Beta Alpha Chapter of E.S.A. will sponsor its fourth annual Arts, Crafts and Hobby Fair October 8 and 9, at the Eden MCA. The fair will be open from 12 noon until 8 p.m. Friday and 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. Saturday.

Crafts will include ceramics, decoupage, oil and watercolor paintings, wood items, quilts, needlecraft, Christmas items and jewelry.

Proceeds go to community projects, camp for handicapped children, scholarships for teachers of mentally retarded children and programs for senior citizens.

Tickets are $1.00 for adults, 50¢ for children and may be purchased from Beta Alpha members or at the door.

How Many Do You Remember?

These two pictures of Fieldale baseball teams about 50 years ago were found at home by Hurst Morton, a retired weaver from the Fieldale Towel Mill. Most of the players have been identified but some were unknown to Mr. Morton. He would appreciate help from readers in making the identification of the remaining ones.

William Shelton of the Plant Service Department was winner of the contest to guess the value of a bucket of coins displayed at the picnic. He received $25 in quarters arranged on a board to form the 25-Year Club name.

Entertainment by "The Sundowners" was much enjoyed. Ramona Cassaday of the Warehouse Office was a vocalist for the group which included her husband, Junior Cassaday, manager, guitar and banjo; Dennis Elmore, saxophone; Hartley Lackey, bass; and Bill Rotenberry, rhythm guitar.

Manuel M. Spencer, a 25-Year Club member employed in the Shipping and Storage Department, gave the invocation preceding the picnic supper.

Seven Years Old

Maurice Lamar Pritchett celebrated his seventh birthday on October 3. His mother, Hattie, is employed in the Drape Department at the Bedspread Finishing Mill.
