

The Champs!

Every Wednesday night for 28 weeks, six teams in the Fieldcrest Ladies' League welcomed the opportunity to get out of the house, away from the kids and participate in a recreational exercise — bowling. And through all the joy of strikes and spares and sometimes disappointment of "gutter balls," the Crest team became the champs. These six team members bowled their best to win more games during the two 14-week sessions than the other five competing teams. The Liberators placed second.

The first and second place teams received trophies for their achievements. Special awards included the following: High Game Scratch-Judy Lyons, High Game Handicap-Larnetta Wilson, 1st High Average-Carolyn Scales, 2nd High Average-Phyllis Dunlap, High Set Handicap-Linda Keen, High Set Scratch-Elsie Mock and Most Improved Player-Sally Mize. The Sportsmanship Award, voted on by all the lady bowlers, was awarded to Rachel Richardson.

The teams and their members included: Crest — Ann Wilson (capt.), Donna Land, Phyllis Whitt, Elaine Morgan, Lucy Clarke, Phyllis Dunlap; Liberators — Judy Lyons (capt.), Frances Sharpe, Joye Hicks, Larnetta Wilson, Elsie Mock, Linda Keen; Hi Lo's — Judy Henriques (capt.), Lou Stophel, Corinda Thompson, Lois Shumate, Janice Robertson, Jo Reid; High Spirits — Carolyn Austin (capt.), Pat Kennon, Carol Rorrer, Nancy Chilton, Rachel Richardson, Carolyn Scales; Computerettes — Debbie Overby (capt.), Karen Law, Deloris Taylor, Sally Mize, Joy Wade, Merle Gentry; Diskettes — Martha Roberts (capt.), Marie Steagall, Tam Staley, Beth Dalton, Loraine Buckner, Terry Howell.

Recognize Anybody?

At her recent retirement party at Karastan, Helen Ficker brought out this group picture taken exactly 40 years ago at Karastan's New York office. Helen is the young lady standing directly behind the kneeling men. For the benefit of those who can't recognize the rest of the group, here's the rundown of names: Back row — Stan Klein, Julius Ciepka and Hamilton Haig. Second row — Tom Corbett, Neil "Miss Sally," Lee Belinian, Helen Ficker, Blanche Aherns and Imbro. Kneeling are Ed Hanley and Ray Derichmond.
