NANNIE HALE

WILBERT STRADER

Two Achieve 40-Year Record With Company

Two employees at the Draper Sheeting Mill have completed outstanding records of 40 years of continuous service. Management has honored these two employees by presenting each with a Fieldcrest 40-year service emblem, a $40 gift certificate for company merchandise and a letter of commendation from William C. Battle, president of Fieldcrest Mills, Inc.

Nannie Hale joined the company in 1937 as a learner in the Weave Room at Draper Sheeting and in 1943 she was promoted to battery filler, a position she still holds.

Wilbert Strader began as a cloth doffer at Draper Sheeting Mill. Prior to becoming a loom fixer, his present job, he was a breakdown man, humidifier man and weaver, all in the Weave Room.
