Two Have 45 Years' Service, Four Attain 40-Year Records

Two Fieldcrest employees have completed outstanding records of 45 years of continuous service with the company and four have achieved 40-year continuous service records.

Management has honored Louise Austin and Orval McCanless by presenting each with a 45-year service emblem, a $45 gift certificate for company merchandise and a letter of commendation from William C. Battle, president of Fieldcrest Mills, Inc.

The Fieldcrest employees completing outstanding records of 40 years of continuous service are Otis Chilton, Elizabeth Lencses, Dan Squires and Robert Trexler.

Louise Austin began work at the Fieldale Towel Mill in 1932 as a spreader in the Cut and Dew Department. Later she transferred to the old hosiery mill where she worked as a turner, inspector, examiner and inspector pairer. In 1955 she transferred to the Cut and Sew Department at Fieldale Towel Mill where she worked as a towel sorter, washcloth trimmer and wash cloth inspector. In 1966 she became inspector and folder, her present position.

Orval McCanless started as a sweeper in the Weaving Department at Draper Sheeting Mill in 1932. In 1941 he became weaver at that mill and in 1946 he became a breakdown man. He has been a loom fixer, his present position, since 1948.

Otis Chilton joined the company in 1937 as a learner in the Weaving Department at the Blanket Greige Mill. In 1946 he was promoted to quill collector and cleaner at that mill. He still holds that position.

Elizabeth Lencses began as a file clerk in the Fieldcrest Marketing Division in 1937. She has worked as an order and file clerk, statement clerk, bookkeeping machine operator and secretary. In 1962 she became reservations clerk, her present position, in the General Management and Operations Department of the Fieldcrest Marketing Division.

Dan Squires joined Fieldcrest as a color man in the Spinning Department at the Blanket Greige Mill. Other jobs he held in that department include size checker and timekeeper. In 1946 he transferred to the Carding Department at Draper Sheeting Mill as an overhauler helper. Later he became assistant foreman and then checker in the Spinning Department at that mill. In 1949 he worked as a second hand at the Blanket Finishing Mill and later transferred back to the Spinning Department at Draper Sheeting Mill as assistant foreman. In 1970 he became a shift foreman, his present position, in that department.

In 1937 Robert Trexler began work at North Carolina Finishing Company as a helper in the Dyeing Department. Later he worked as tub operator and floorman. Prior to his present position as section foreman in the Dyeing Department, he was assistant dyer.

These four employees have received 40-year service emblems, $40 gift certificates for company merchandise and letters of commendation from William C. Battle, president of the company.
