Stuckel, Williamson Are Division Vice Presidents

Bruce J. Stuckel and Fred C. Williamson Jr. have been promoted to division vice presidents by the Karastan Marketing Division. The announcement was made in New York by Francis X. Larkin, president of the Karastan Marketing Division.

Stuckel has been named division vice president of the Laurel Hill Carpet and Rug Department, which entails the tufted carpet operation for the company. He had been manager of the Merchandising Department for Laurel Hill since January, 1975. He will continue to report to Ben W. Binford, division vice president for Merchandising.

Williamson has been appointed division vice president, Contract Sales. He had been national contract sales manager for Karastan since December, 1975. He will continue to report to Charles G. Horn, division vice president, Karastan Sales.

Before joining Karastan, Stuckel had been a product merchandise manager in sheets and towels for the Bath and Bed Division of Fieldcrest Mills, Inc. Williamson came to Karastan from the Gulistan division of J. P. Stevens. Both men will continue to make their headquarters at Karastan's sales offices in New York.
