

Good Safety Record Earns Barbecue Dinner

Employees at the Blanket Warehouse enjoyed a safety barbecue on Tuesday, December 20 honoring their achievement of 159,100 total hours and 2,135 average hours per employee without a lost-time accident. The last lost-time accident at the Blanket Warehouse was on October 11, 1976.

ENJOYING THE MEAL are, from left, Milton Barnes and Oba Hanna.

SERVING UP THE BARBECUE from left, are R. L. Glasgow, superintendent of the Warehouse, Karen Byrd, Brenda Reed, and Brenda Hayden. In background is area personnel manager Jesse Corry.

WITH A HEAPING PLATEFUL of barbecue is Amos Shively.

WAITING THEIR TURN, at left, are Debra Thompson and Oanna Taylor. Facing camera is Joe Hopkins, supervisor of the Packaging Department.

BIG SMILES as H. G. Rosenthal, left, plant manager - Blanket Finishing, and W. R. Rice, manager - Customer Services, prepare to enjoy some barbecue.