The article on our 3rd page entitled "Masonic Narrow-Mindedness" is taken from the columns of that excellent paper the Philadelphia Chronicle.

We call attention to the advertisement of the Singer Sewing Machine Co., to be found in this issue. The Singer is one of the first-class institutions of America, and young men of capacity will find this a splendid opportunity for profitable employment. The gentlemanly agent at Charlotte is a Mason and will take pleasure in offering good inducements to competent craftsmen.

Our Boss is on the go, somewhere. We heard from him as having been elected an honorary member of a social club in Charlotte; what its nature is we are not advised, but he being a sober man and a parson we hope the Charlotte Brethren used him well.

The next we hear of him he is in the laud of the "Swamp Angels," but whether he is looking for a safe retreat from the Sox "njins" or contracting with the "Skeeters" to dun delinquent subscribers, we are not prepared to say.

Three convicts who were at work in a brick yard near Raleigh, escaped last Monday.

Passengers going East over the N. C. R. R. now get dinner at Durham, and we'll bet they get a good one, too.

The thief who will steal 400 cabbages at one time ought to have to eat them at one sitting. A Hillsboro gentleman lost that number a few nights since.

REGULAR MEETING OF CHORAZIN CHAPTER, No. 13, TO NIGHT, (FRIDAY.)

Let it not be forgotten in these dull times that a penny saved is two pennies made. Determined to "do as he would be done by," Bogart keeps his goods so low that all can buy; and as an evidence of public appreciation his stock has to be replenished weekly to meet the demands upon it. Almost anything in the line of Dry Goods can be found at

Mr. R. G. Callum, of Savannah, Ga., is visiting his family and friends in this city. Though from a cotton country, he looks fat and hearty.

Mr. James Raines, corresponding Editor of the Richmond Whig, and a Job Printer of Danville, Va., called on us this week. He reports business dull and hard times generally.

The flattering Patronage awarded to Chamberlain's Jewelry emporium during the holidays has induced him to keep his stock complete, and he is constantly receiving invoices of new and elegant Jewelry, Silver and Fancy Ware, and will take great pleasure in exhibiting his beautiful designs to any who may call. Personal attention to fine Watch-work and the manufacture of Special Jewelry.

A recent visitor to Raleigh in speaking of the NATIONAL HOTEL, says:

"The Col. will welcome you, and during your stay with him he will spare no pains or trouble to entertain you in princely style. His table you will find loaded with the delicacies of the season, and polite servants who will fill your orders in a manner to please the most fastidious. The sleeping apartments of the National are kept in order, always clean, and good comfortable beds. By all means, call on the Colonel when you visit Raleigh, and one visit there will convince you to such an extent, that when you again visit Raleigh, you will be found wending your way to the old NATIONAL."

Spelterini, a woman, walked across Niagara Falls on a cable last Saturday, a distance of 800 feet. She wore cabbage leaves on her head and milk pails on her feet, and carried a balancing pole weighing 60 lbs. She is not quite equal to Blondin but he had best look to his laurels.

Messrs. Callum Bros. are contemplating opening a branch of their Drug Store at Reidsville, and if they stock it as well as their Store here the people of that section will never complain of not having a first class establishment in their midst.

Mr. D. W. Davis has located in our city and is prepared to repair Sewing Machines, Umbrellas, Locks, Keys and Machinery generally. Bells hung and all manner of Plumbing attended to promptly. Satisfaction guaranteed. Shop in the Caldwell building next door to J. B. Davis' Boot & Shoe Shop. Give him a trial.

What next? DON CARLOS, the man who wants the Spanish crown, and who passed through here last week, has relatives near Charlotte. His father was a distinguished North Carolinian.

The M. E. Sabbath School of Danville Excused to this place last Wednesday about 600 strong and were met at the depot by the M. E. School and the Greensboro Cornet Band and escorted to the College Grove. They had a good time generally, and left well pleased with all they saw and heard.

The Tarboro Southerner says: A. W. Arrington, Esq., of Rocky Mount, is of a festive turn of mind and gamesome mood. On Tuesday night he arrayed himself in the garb of lovely woman, and burst in on a party of young men indulging in a shower bath in the rear of the printing office. The boys had got an inkling of coming fun, seized the incog, held him under the barrel of water until that was exhausted, then, half-drowned and dripping, he was allowed to depart, a wetter though wiser man.

Rev. Dr. Harrell went to Graham last Saturday and, as the night was warm, slept with the windows up. On Sunday morning when he awoke he found that some one had taken his clothes and, as he only carried one suit, he didn't exactly know what to do, but—after looking around he found that the midnight visitor had left him a "spick, span," new suit. He says he has got some more old clothes to trade on the same terms.

Mr. J. M. Byrd, of Fayetteville, was married to Miss Annie Martin, and the Wide Awake says:

"We remember that it is an ancient prophecy that before old Gabe shall sound his trumpet, the lamb and the lion shall lie down together," but we can think of nothing that was ever said concerning the mating of a J. Byrd with a Martin, therefore we readily conclude that the prognosticators of antediluvian days had no conception of the occurrence of any such strange event. But wonders never cease!

May their troubles all be little ones!"

SUICIDE.—Dr. James C. Leathers a resident of the vicinity of South Lowell in this county committed suicide on Thursday last by taking strychnine, from the effects of which he almost immediately died. Dr. Leathers had been an inmate of the Insane Asylum until a recent period, but was discharged cured. Returning home, he found his affairs in a confused condition which preyed heavily upon his mind probably inducing a return of his malady thus leading to his tragic end. He was probably about 45 years of age.—Hillsboro Recorder.

PETERSONS' COUNTERFEIT DETECTOR, AND NATIONAL BANK NOTE LIST.—This excellent publication, of great advantage to every one in business, from the millionaire, banker, and auditors of vast railroad enterprises, to the retail dealer, is even more perfect at the present time than it has been in the past. It is a semi-monthly publication, containing full and accurate descriptions of all Counterfeit Notes in existence. New bogus bills described as soon as they appear. Every number of the Detector contains reliable, and impartial reviews of the National and local monetary situation. As an advertising medium it has no equal. We advise all Business Men to subscribe. Terms Monthly $1.50; Semi-monthly, $3.00. Address T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia Pa., for specimen copy.

PACKING TOBACCO IN MACHINERY HALL.—A characteristic feature of the centennial exhibition, and a very picturesque one, too, observes an exchange, is the presence in the northwestern portion of Machinery Hall of several colored men, who are employed by a Virginia tobacco manufacturer to show the process of packing tobacco, but who, while they are packing, amuse themselves and a larger number of bearers by singing well-known Southern melodies. They have unconsciously become quite a distinctive feature of the exhibition, and attract a great deal of attention, particularly from people of the north and foreigners who have never heard a "darkey song" before.—Tobacco Leaf.
