About 250 pounds of Editorial flesh from Durham, was in our city last Saturday looking after the interest of the Durham Herald. The Col. would never be taken for an editor by those who knew him not—he is too fat. Editors, as a class, are proverbially lean.

Mr. W. H. Beveridge of Richmond, Va., called on us last week, and we found him to be a very pleasant gentleman. He is getting up a North Carolina and Virginia Directory, and was visiting our city to gain information to be placed therein and also to get advertisements and make sales of the Book, and we are pleased to say he met with very fair success.

It is a burning shame for people to come to town and tie up their teams and leave them through the day to almost starve for water. This has frequently been done this summer by parties who stop in the Mendenhall lot, opposite the jail. Frequently have we seen the poor brutes try to break from the lot when they would see persons working the street pump near by. Shame on the man who will thus wantonly neglect his faithful beast.

W D. McAdoo having leased the hotel interest of the Benbow House for five years, that house has been closed. This throws all competition between the McAdoo House and the Planters' Hotel. We regret the closing of the Benbow, as it has become one of the attractive features of our little city and had gained a reputation second to none in the South. The new and elegant McAdoo House will prove sufficiently capacious for the accommodation of all.

COL. C. S. BROWN, the clever landlord of the National, recognizing the hardness of the times, has reduced board at his excellent hotel to $2 per day. The accommodations, as heretofore, equal to any in the State. The traveling public should take notice.

BOLD ROBBERY.—Last Saturday night some scoundrel entered the office of Dr. A. S. Porter and went into the room where he was asleep and stole $2 in money from his vest pocket, took his pocket knife, shoes and socks and left. The Dr. had about $20 in his coat pocket in an envelope which the thief took out but did not discover the money in it and threw it down. A small paper of Quinine taken from the same pocket, was strewn over the table. Citizens of Greensboro, load your guns and if you catch a thief on your premises shoot him first, and then tell him to stop.

Callum Bros., our enterprising Druggists, opened a branch store in the town of Reidsville this morning. They mean business, and to convince yourselves of that fact give them a call.

The citizens of Charlotte hearing that CALDWELL, of the Observer was going to Raleigh concluded to watch him. Which they did about $2,50 worth. He is now watching on the Raleigh News.

Raleigh must be a dirty place, or else the following from the News don't sit square: "A colored woman from the country remarked, yesterday, as she pulled out a piece of tobacco from her pocket and inserted it between her teeth: "I know its mighty bad to chew tobacco, and it hurts me; but de scent ob de town makes me fling up if I don't put baccy in my mouf to sorter kill de smell."

KEEP THE BALE MOVING—A bale of cotton has just been forwarded to John Nichols, of this city, from Goldsboro, to which a considerable amount of interest attaches. The bale was presented to the masonic lodge at Goldsboro, by a charitable and liberal gentleman, to be sold for the benefit of the Oxford orphan asylum. The cotton was put up for sale and bought in by the lodge of that city, who now send it to the masonic fraternity of this city, in the care of Mr. Nichols, to go through the same process. Norfolk or Baltimore will be the next place where this peripatetic and oft sold bale will halt at. We hope it will be sent to Norfolk, and after being sold there for the benefit of the asylum it can go to Baltimore for final sale. The proceeds of the various sales will aggregate a very handsome sum for the asylum. Keep the bale moving, say we, and as soon as this comes to a standstill, let some one put another in motion for the same praiseworthy purpose.—Ral. Sentinel.

DRUGS.—In passing down the street the other day we accidentally stepped into the Laboratory of our energetic young Druggists, Callum Bros., and were surprised to find to what extent they were manufacturing and boxing up, in one doz. boxes, for Fall trade, Carolina Chill Cure, Eye Water, Pile Lotion, Cleansing Cream, Jam. Ginger, Southern Tonic Bitters, Paregoric, Laudanum, all kinds Essences, Hair Oils, &c. Any and all of these goods, they can and will sell as low as any reliable Drug House in this or any other country. The goods are all full strength and prepared by a Scientific Pharmacist of an experience of over thirty-five years. County merchants and others would do well to give them a trial. Their terms are cash, and consequently they will sell at cash prices. They also have Buist's New Crop Turnip Seed,—fresh and reliable.

We learn that Sweigler's bakery was robbed on Saturday night of two sacks of flour, some little money and all the bread and cakes in the show case. The thieves were probably the same ones that robbed Dr. Porter.
