

"Louise Vernon is an efficient accountant, C. P. A.

"Butterball' Williamson is foods editor for Good House-keeping.

"Edith Arey Womble is the most punctual employe of Bell Telephone Company.

"Eleanor Woodruff is winning fame as an Olympic hurdler.

"To Indo - China speeds Katherine Herring to teach little Chinese.

"Gladys eagerly said when the oracle stopped,

"What about us?"

"Ah", moaned the oracle, "you shall be famous as a co-worker of John Dewey, a lawyer. You, Gladys Modlin, will be a lawyer.

"Mary Mercer Johnson indeed shall have her fondest desire, never to work a minute after college."

Eagerly we dashed out to tell the news. Here is the prophecy of the oracle of the Delphi, as told by Gladys Modlin and Mary Mercer Johnson.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of Montreat College, being of good health and sound mind, admitting ourselves to be of small but much coveted estate, in full possession of super-human intelligence and therefore an exaggerated opinion of ourselves, do hereby publish this our last will and testament, in order to distribute our earthly possessions to the following:

Article I

Sec. I To the faculty we leave our friendship and our appreciation and admiration for their patience in dealing with

Prettiest

----- Marguerite Singleton
Most Attractive

----- Peggy Jones
----- Nele Linoweaver
Neatest

----- Frankie Mears
Most Intellectual

----- Betty Pegram
----- Janet Marson
Best Sport

----- Anna Fisher
Most Athletic

----- Ellen Fisher
Most Degrified

----- Janet Marson
Most Sincere

----- Page Lancaster
Best Dressed

----- Betty Pegram
Most Dependable

----- Page Lancaster
Most Popular

----- Elizabeth Johnston
Wittiest

----- Peggy Jones

us, and we do cheerfully (now that it's over) forgive them for trials and tribulations they have pressed upon us.

Sec. II To Miss Henderlite, our class sponsor, we leave one bottle of Fitch's Color Restorer to remove the gray hairs which we have so unwittingly caused her. Also we express our sincere appreciation, which she deserves, for her work and those sleepless nights she has spent worrying about us.

Sec. III To all future Senior Classes we leave Montreat, except that part of it that we will always carry with us. To them also we leave our term papers, our English charts, etc., and our means of getting them in at the eleventh hour.

Article II

Sec. I I, Ann Acree, do