

use a library.

"Alice DuBose is a veterinarian's assistant, supervising the ward for sick canaries.

"Margaret Hiblock will doubtless become great as a fashion designer and orator. Her subjects and 'combining colors' and 'picturesque pagodas'.

"From Queen of the May, to Queen of the Kitchen with King James in faithful attendance will wander Sara Drew.

"After witnessing the tragic first years of Judy's life in the Senior Play, Elizabeth Fearsall is devoting her life's energies to bigger and better orphanages.

"Helen Pendergrass is the business woman of Black Mountain Drugstore.

"After her extensive experience on the Diallette, Frances Quarterman has risen to proof-reader of Cosmopolitan.

"Helen Rust is carefully watching the diet of her 'bouncing baby boys.'

"I tank I go home', but not to Sweden, to Asheville; not Greta, but Dot Siler.

"Virginia Sistare, willing and capable, remains a spinster, caring diligently for her Persian.

"Enough is enough, and too much is too much for Margaret Smith who flings English Literature aside for the composition of the latest swing music.

"True to her name Justine Farte is a sleuthing detective, seeking slippery criminals.

"Leslie Thomas, keeping up that old spirit, is 'Pep Director' for Kay Kayser.

"First Lady of Kentucky is noted for her brilliant entertaining and Southern dinners. No?----Carolyn Tyree, of course.

Peggy Jones and Betty Pegram will to Mildred Allen their dear love for English grammar.

To Nan Allen, Page Lancaster and Ellen Fisher leave their capacity for consuming almost anything along the line of food.

Mary Pasley bequeaths to Ruby Street and Jackie Capps her ability to invariably turn the faucet the wrong way in chemistry and drench everyone within ten feet.

On Miss Webb, Miss Cooper bestows her two extra wrinkles and the ten pounds which she lost while pushing us up graduation hill, and, at the same time, trying to get a gift for the college.

To Miss Cooper, we leave a brand new victrola with the loudest records available, as she has been so accustomed to hearing our noise that the peace and quiet that will prevail after our departure will, without a doubt, be unbearable.

To our dear little sisters, we, the dignified Seniors leave our buckets for catching tears at graduation.

In Witness whereof, we, the Senior High School Class of Montreat College, have to this, our last Will and Testament, subscribed our name and set our seal, this twenty-second day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine, A. D.

Dr. Margaret Spencer, Witness
Dr. R. C. Anderson, Witness

--Betty Pegram, Class Lawyer

STATISTICS

Best-All-Round

-----Elizabeth Johnston