

What about "Mag" Richards spending the Thanksgiving holidays on a house party. Some party. And about Beth Sager turning her boy-friend's picture to the wall.--P.S. She heard from him today, so it's back around.

When Penny Miller, Ethelyn "Fick", Ann Webb, and Thelma Corpening went on their house-party not so long ago, they went over to this cabin where some boys were and said, "May we come in?" So, they went in and stayed for hours! (so we hear) That girl from "England" has got what it takes!

What has the army got that Jacque Hubbard wants?

It seemed for awhile that Jewel Houck wasn't going to get that letter from Jim, but it came.

Luke certainly knows how to pick out watches, doesn't he, Madelene Hearn?

How's Brooks now, Catherine Wilkinson?

Why so pale, Virginia Heath? Is Harvey a two-timer?

Nancy Gleaton, are you still cheering for Duke, or is it Gastonia now?

We wonder whose Lee Edwards' E ring you're wearing, Ann Fishburne?

Johnette Griffin, are you still a loyal admirer of George Washington? We thought so.

Frances Murrah, how long has it been since Billy sent you his love? Not long, we hope.

Why is Beryl Evans interested in Chapel Hill?

Who was the "uniform" Patti Fitzgerald had the other day?

Eunice McComas was worried about the fidelity of her Joe, but she feels better now, since he sent her his picture.

Why is it Dell Horton and Diana Lee are always singing, "Ain't it a shame about Payne?"

Before and after effects of Ovaltine-- Alice M. Atwood and Judy James.

Maxine Suttle is now a delivery boy. How about it, Anne Dodson? You should know.

Hazel B. Harris has a brand new one in the city of Black Mountain. Blond or redhead, Hazzie?

Our model romance is that of Jean Harkey and Jack; or is it that of Marian Martin and Swift?

Stencil

The saddest words of tongue or pencil
The Dialette Staff is going to cut a stencil.

The bookstore is always in a whirr
There's not even room for me to stir.

"Don't peep; you know you should go away

We have to get the Dialette out today."
Back they go to the machine again
And you wonder if you are going insane.

Finally they're through and out of the way

You've had as much as you want for one day.

The saddest words of tongue or pen
I think it's going to happen again.

---Olive Bradshaw.

The three chief races of man are sprints, hurdles, and long distance.