EDUCATION

"Courtesy is kindly politeness." If you are merely polite, you are simply acting according to the usages of society. Politeness is artificial polish. Courtesy is the sole of the polish. To cultivate courtesy then, guard against letting your actions become mechanical. Make it a habit to do at least one kindly act every day, and do it as early in the day as possible. It is astonishing how many happy trifles one can do in a day by looking for them. Do not demand or even expect courteous treatment from others in return for courtesies given. Lack of courtesy in others is no excuse for discourtesy from you.

Mayme Freeman had the honor of receiving the bronze shorthand pin, with "Gregg speed test, 60 words," engraved on it, because of the fewest errors in the 60 word test. Others who have received The Gregg Order of Artist certificates for meeting the requirements for the Gregg speed test are: Ava Neil Taylor, Lula Lee Neal, Jimmie Rowland, Madeline Hearn, Alliene Fields Irene Beam, Georgia Smith, Mary Sale, Mary Mitchell, Laura Shuford, Vivian Martin, Virginia Foster, Jewel Houck, Alma Sharpe, Joan McKinstry, Edna Chandler, Amy Pettitt, Irma Jean Shelor, and Catherine Williams.

Students in the Accounting Department are beginning their second Practice Sets. From all appearances, they each promise to be an efficient Accountant some day--we won't say just when.

of this imaginary kingdom on their selection of their rulers--you certainly chose some good ones and we are mighty proud of them.

Now--to King Marianna "Mank" Johnson and Queen Thelma "Snooky" Corpening, we extend our heartiest congratulations, and best wishes for a long and happy rule, with lots of fun and frolic all along the way!

Here's a task is set to you,
Don't idly sit and view it
Nor be content to wish it done--
Be in at once and do it.

Think truly--and thy thoughts,
Shall the world's famine feed;
Speak truly--and each word of thine
Shall prove a fruitful seed;
Live truly--and thy life shall be
A great and noble creed.
