SECOND SEMESTER BEGINS

ANNUAL PICTURES

Already the plans for the Sun Dial are under way. The class pictures were taken in the Fellowship lobby Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday by the Preston Studio of Asheville.

Many of the students have made some excellent snapshots of Montreat's scenery and inhabitants. If anyone possesses some that would be appropriate for the candid shot section of the annual, the staff would be glad to consider them.

Some of the recent plans for the Sun Dial have included the choice of the dedication and theme. These will not be disclosed until publication of the annual. The outcome of the superlative elections made in Wednesday's chapel period is as follows:

SUPERLATIVE	COLLEGE
Best All Around . . . . .	Ann Turner
Best Sport . . . . .	Betty Gene Alley
Most Attractive . . . . .	"Judy" Lewis
Most Athletic . . . . .	"Babs" Alward
Most Intellectual . . . . .	Colia Turk
Most Dependable . . . . .	Lucille Rust
Neatest . . . . .	Charlotte Crawford

SUPERLATIVE	HIGH SCHOOL
Best All Around . . . . .	Nell Hogshoad
Best Sport . . . . .	Maxine Suttle
Most Attractive . . . . .	"Henry" White
Most Athletic . . . . .	"Billy" Crawford
Most Intellectual . . . . .	Polly Edmunds
Most Dependable . . . . .	Betty Belk
Neatest . . . . .	Dema Parker

After the pleasant interlude of Christmas holidays, some three hundred Montreat girls are again finding themselves in the routine of classes, and, with the worry of examinations far behind, are better able to enjoy basket-ball and the other activities with which this new semester gets off to a good start.

January will be a busy month for the Freshman College Class in more ways than one. During Talent Week, members of the class will display their accomplishments in such gentle arts as shining shoes, setting hair, cleaning rooms, laundering clothes, washing cars, or any other little troublesome job. Their rates will be moderate and a guaranty of satisfaction goes with each job. Plans for the Freshman College entertainment, which is also to be a January event, have been surrounded with much secrecy, but the few vague hints gathered from "inside" sources promise much in the way of new and unique entertainment. The most outstanding talent of the class will be featured in it.

In the production of an annual play the Montreat faculty is given an opportunity to exhibit its unusual ability for acting. This year's selection, "Alice Blue Gown", is predicted to be an even greater success than previous ones and promises to be a rare treat for all lovers of drama.

Quite appropriately, the main feature of the Valentine party will be a comic operetta which has a Cupid in it, along
