THE FESTIVAL OF STATES

The long awaited day for every Montreat girl rolled around on October 10, 1942, the night of the Festival of States.

There is always something about "my state" that makes everyone want to give the best that is in her. Thus everyone was stirred to work with a winning spirit, and the determination to come out on top. Each girl had studied, worked, and practiced so that she might pay tribute and honor to her particular state on this event. Then, her chance came to show the results of her efforts. The result was seventeen very successful skits. Each group was urged to a better performance by cheers of its fellow supporters, and each was
