THANKSGIVING PLANS ANNOUNCED

"PENROD" TO BE GIVEN DEC. 5

Even though the Dramatic classes haven't received much recognition this year they really have been working. The College class has been "sundling away" making scenes for the play to be given, while the Day School class has been practicing for their hilarious play "Penrod" by Booth Tarkenton. This play is to be given on December fifth, and it has been noted that there is quite a bit of talent in the class. Those who will take part in the play are as follows: Tim, Helen Martin; Della, Betty Owen; Mary Schofield, Betty Morrison; Mr. Jones, Ray Farborough; Robert Williams; Elizabeth Kojlar; Mrs. Bassett. Annabella; Pauline; Henry Schofield, Rose Hill; Herbert Hamilton Dade, Ruth Richardson; Paired, Shirley Arne Johnson; Sam Williams, Barbara Jobe; Marjorie Jones, Patsy Brooks; George E. Bassett, Mona Carl Smith; Roy Lester Kinoshina; Jane Coates; Herman, Blanche Reynolds; Verman, Betty Adkins.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR THIS SATURDAY NIGHT

To prove that it is more than merely a governing body, the Student Cabinet is playing hostess tonight in Anderson. If you enjoy indoor sports, music, 'n things you won't want to miss all the fun that the members of the Cabinet have planned. The affair begins at eight o'clock.

MONTREAT VISITORS

Mrs. Louis Krainock and son, are visiting on the Montreat Campus. She was the former Miss Mildred Brooks and graduated from Montreat College and taught English here before her marriage.

Despite rumors to the contrary, Montreat will observe Thanksgiving in much the same way as in preceding years.

At ten o'clock, in Gaither Chapel, the entire school and community will meet for a special service, at which Dr. Caldwell will preach a Thanksgiving sermon and the choir will sing Mrs. Crosby Adams' "Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem."

Following the church service, the annual Thanksgiving soccer game, sponsored by the Athletic Board, will be played off on the soccer field. After lunch, there will be a show for all those who wish to go.

The Thanksgiving Banquet will be held at Alba at six o'clock. The Social Committee of the Faculty is planning an entertainment to be presented in Gaither Hall immediately following the banquet.

SUN DIAL STAFF SELLS STAMPS

Because of the inconvenience in buying defense stamps at the Post Office, Montreat girls are now being given the opportunity of buying stamps on the campus. The Sun Dial Staff, when it realized that Montreat girls were not fully aware of and cooperating in this important phase of Uncle Sam's defense, decided that it could do something about the situation. A chapel program on Saturday, November 7, launched the campaign. During the coming weeks the stamps will be sold on Saturdays in front of Alba, but anyone wishing to buy at any other time may get them from Caroline Elkins, 230 College Hall, Hazel Blythe, Fellowship, or Faith Swanstrom 62 Alba.
