The soccer season came to an exciting close with the playing of the tournament in which the Hiwassee tribe came out on top. The hard-fighting champions were victorious in every one of the games which they played, even though the runner-up Cherokees gave them a real battle for the championship. The tournament began with a flying start when the Hiwassee eleven squeezed out a 6-4 victory over the valiant Cherokees. The next game was a breath-taking, swift-moving engagement between the blues and yellow of the Choctaws and Mohawks. In spite of the noble efforts of both teams neither Choctaws nor Mohawks could stay out in front, so the game ended in a 4-4 tie.

The Cherokees vanquished the Mohawks in the third game of the tournament by the narrow margin of 4-3. The Hiwassee's rolled over the Choctaws by a score of 8-0 in a heart-breaking game in which the losers missed many a goal by a fateful few inches. In the next to the last game the Cherokees downed the Choctaws 12-4, it seemed to many of the soccer enthusiasts that the Cherokees had a faint chance for the soccer throne, but the following day by seizing and 8-4 victory from the Mohawks.

Each tribe possessed some outstanding starts who helped crowd the games with some of the action and thrills which characterized the whole tournament. Norma Campbell highlighted the Hiwassee advances with a grand total of five goals in three games. Three girls shared the honors of the Cherokee tribe. Marion Watts, Loreno Lyon, and Sara Clement were responsible for getting that ball thru the goal two times apiece. Penny Miller, the outstanding star of the Choctaw team accounted for three Choctaw goals, and Zunita Wakefield, Mohawk star, was responsible for three of the Mohawk's goals.

Now that the soccer season is over, we will be hearing a lot of talk about the new sport which will start in a few weeks. This new sport is, in reality, a combination of sports, and if you don't know how to play all of them, you can at least play some of them. What is this new sport? I suppose you have already guessed. Well, it's indoor sport and we certainly will appreciate them when the weather gets a little cooler, and it's just not quite so comfortable outside. Indoor sports includes a lot of games. There is ping-pong, parcheesi, Chinese checkers, checkers, caroms, ring tennis, and horseshoes, and every one of these is just lots of fun. You sign up for each one of the indoor sports separately, and you can sign up for as many as you like. After your have had a week or two of practice, the tournament will begin and then we will really see some keen competition. When you and your opponent are ready to battle out your tournament game, be sure you have a Board member or an especially appointed person to referee in order to make it official. Evelyn Soverel, head of indoor sports sends you this message: "Please come out for everything, whether you know how to play or not, for you'll soon learn, and indoor sports are really loads of fun."

In the last issue of the Dialette we told you about the new High School Athletic Board President and Vice President. The other members of the Board have been elected and here they are: Secretary, Ann Galloway, Treasurer - Gwen Warren, Trosac Tribe Chief - Maxine Suttle, Aztec Tribe Chief - Rachel Hudnall, Aztec Cheerleader - Rachel Hudnall, Trosac Cheerleader - Ruth Ewart.
